The Venerable
VITAL GRANDIN
Oblate off Mary Immaculate
1st Bishop of St. Albert

Bishop Grandin's beatification was introduced in Rome February 24, 1937. He was named Venerable on December 15, 1966.

150th anniversary of St. Albert Bishop

Tomorrow will mark the 150th anniversary of the birth of one of St. Albert's early founders - Bishop Vital Grandin.

Vital Grandin was born in France in 1829 and came to St. Boniface, Manitoba at the age of 25. In 1871 he was named Bishop of the St. Albert diocese where his reputation for work with the missions of Alberta, schools and seminaries was impeccable.

Bishop Grandin died in St. Albert in 1902 and according to a member of the "Cercle Francophone" Cultural Committee may someday be declared a saint.

Vital Grandin School in Sturgeon Heights takes its name from the Bishop as does Grandin House in the St. Albert mission.

Jamison presents cemetery proposal

MLA Ernie Jamison appeared before council Monday night to present a proposal for a community cemetery. Mr. Jamison has negotiated for a six acre parcel of crown land on Site 6, the former Athabasca University property site. He began looking for a cemetery site when members of the Royal Canadian Legion came to him asking if any crown land were available for a cemetery. The Legion wanted to have a Field of Honour for the burial of veterans. If the city accepted the parcel, the Legion would receive 2.2 acres of it.

Mr. Jamison said the land was available under the Public Lands Act which allows for the transfer of up to six acres of crown land for $1. The city would pay surveying costs. He told council that in a meeting with officials from the MD of Sturgeon, it had been established that the MD would waive all rights to the land, which is located within their boundaries. The land has been maintained by the Indian Association, as it was formerly an Indian cemetery.

Mr. Jamison said that if the city wished to accept the parcel, and needed room later to expand, there were 1200 acres of crown land surrounding the six acres. The parcel would allow for approximately 6,000 burials.

After members of council closely questioned the pro-

Catholic District contesting name change

Trustees of the Catholic School District (St. Albert Public School District 3) were a bit upset at the Protestant District's (St. Albert Protestant Separate School District No. 6) move to apply for a name change (St. Albert Board of Education). Upset enough to ask their solicitor to notify the Minister of Education of their disapproval.

The fact that the Protestant District Trustees wanted a name change was not the issue but rather the way they went about it that bothered their Catholic District comrades. Trustees of the latter district felt they should have been contacted before the application for a name change was filed so that a compromise could have been worked out.

Trustee Jerry Manegre said the new name chosen by the Separate District implied that it was the Public District and that this was erroneous. He said that maybe the Catholic District should look at changing its name also and Trustee Don Lavoy agreed that this approach would be more positive rather than merely attacking the other Board's choice.

Trustee Ken Porter said that he was not sure what name he preferred - St. Albert Public Catholic or Please Turn to Page 2A

GERRY THIBAULT

Liberals nominate Gerry Thibault for provincial race

The position of MLA for St. Albert is proving to be a coveted one, as a third candidate has declared himself in the race for political honours. Last Wednesday night, local Liberals nominated Gerry Thibault a 32 year old Edmonton businessman to carry their colours into the electoral contest. It is anticipated the election will be called for mid-March.

ISSUES CHALLENGE

Despite the favoured position of Conservatives in Alberta politics, Mr. Thibault says he feels Albertans are ready for more open political contests, with a wider range of candidates from which to choose. As an expression of his confidence in his own Liberal philosophy Mr. Thibault says he would be happy to debate the issues with NDP candidate Bob Borreson and Conservative Myrna Fyfe.

Mr. Thibault was born in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan where he grew up on a farm. He moved to the Edmonton region in 1964. After studying architecture at NAIT, he worked for an architect for two years. He then explored the intricacies of the music business, in the employ of the United Conservatory of Music. At the conclusion of this chapter of his career, he owned all the United Conservatory studios in Edmonton. His interest was subsequently caught by the growing security business, and he sold his studios to buy into King Alarm Systems. He still owns the company. Gerry has always had an interest in politics, but decided to wait until he was of a more mature age before tossing his hat in the political ring.

In the St. Albert constituency, Mr. Thibault sees roads and schools as the key issues. He feels the area's burgeoning growth has put a strain on transportation facilities and believes congestion in these areas to be a crucial issue. The problem of the St. Albert Trail (Hwy. 2) and general transportation needs of residents must be assessed from both a long and short-term viewpoint. In the realm of education, he is Please Turn to Page A-2

Grandin residents oppose mall redevelopment

It was Standing Room Only at City Hall last night and it was the proposal to redevelop Grandin Shoppers Mall that packed the house. A number of Grandin residents were in attendance to indicate their displeasure at the proposal to members of city council. The residents gave voice to their opinions during a public hearing to amend the General Plan. The amendment is necessary in order that the General Plan reflect the redevelopment and to redesignate lot 30B from park to General Commercial.

Much of the controversy surrounding Lot 30B arises from the fact that the lot was part of a court settlement. In normal conditions, land designated park is never owned by private interests. However, this parcel is not publicly owned, as it was given to the developer in a previous court settlement. Confusion has resulted from the fact that the park designation remained despite the ownership. Those residents who purchased land for their homes were correctly told that the land adjacent was parkland, and likely to remain so. However, it was not made clear that this parkland was privately owned, and could conceivably be redesignated for commercial use. City Manager Bob Byron made it clear at the meeting that this information might not be forthcoming in a standard enquiry about zoning, as the employee answering the query might be unaware of the history of that particular parcel. (City zoning maps indicate land use designations, not ownership).

Mr. Byron opened the discussion by presenting the proposal using a series of architect's drawings. The design calls for a five storey hotel, with 64 rooms, a pub style tavern, a lobby bar and a 90 seat lounge. A parkade will be constructed at the east end of the property, adjacent to Grandin Road. A further two level underground parkade is to be constructed on Lot 30B, with five tennis courts on top of the underground parkade.

The existing mall east of Macleods will be demolished as well as the north portion, with the exception of The Shell Station and the Firestone outlet. An office complex is slated for the northeast sector of the complex.

Mr. Byron told council the proposal would give 100,000 additional square feet and Please Turn to Page A-2 particularly interested in the recently announced half-billion dollar grant which is to be spent on Alberta schools over the next five years. He feels it will be an important part of the MLA's role to ensure that some of that money is to be spent on local schools and programs.

MORE "NO STRINGS" GRANTS

In the controversial area of provincial-municipal finance, Mr. Thibault is in favour of increasing the number of unconditional or "no strings" grants. He comments that while the province is seeking to attain this type of unconditional funding from the federal government, it is unwilling to allow the municipalities similar autonomy.

When asked about the question of St. Albert's annexation by Edmonton he says he believes most people moved to St. Albert to avoid living in "urban sprawl." He comments wryly that the low crime rate in St. Albert is reflected in the sales figures for alarm systems in this city, and states that this security might be lost if the city were to join Edmonton.

On a province-wide basis, Mr. Thibault thinks the single most serious issue to be resolved in the coming election is the lack of opposition to the Conservative government.

"We might as well be in Cuba!" he comments. Elaborating on this, he states that "whatever the government hands out in the name of policy, good government or just plain propaganda, goes forth without opposition. There are not enough people to research legislation and we particularly need a legitimate opposition to have input into the Heritage Trust Fund." Mr. Thibault says the media in general, and the Edmonton Journal in particular give rubber stamp approval to government policy while ignoring the other parties. The backbenchers themselves lack power, he maintains and also serve in a "rubberstamp" capacity while the province is run by a "handful of people."

Like most Albertans, Mr. Thibault has an abiding interest in the management of the Heritage Trust Fund. He expresses concern that no official audit has been done on the Fund and that the public remains in ignorance as to the amount of interest the various investments are earning. Regarding some of those investments that do get publicity, Mr. Thibault has criticisms. He sees injustice in the loan made to Gulf Oil for Syncrude which was lent at an interest rate of eight percent. "Why don't they pay the same rates as we do?" he asks.

He is also skeptical about the wisdom of the province's recent loan to Nova Scotia. He points out that Nova Scotia is already heavily in debt and a falling dollar is worsening that province's debt position. He cites the fact that since Nova Scotia obtained a sizeable loan from a German bank the subsequent drop in the dollar has tripled that debt and he believes the small Maritime province will be unable to repay the debt, making them a poor credit risk for the Albertan loan.

"Whoever OK'ed the loan on this end obviously didn't check with the rest of the financial community," he remarks.

Mr. Thibault has other reservations about the fund's management, particularly the fact the fund holds too many cash assets. He believes these resources should be re-invested and comments that a private business with as much money in the bank would not grow.

The Gazette's final question concerned the recently announced billion dollar grant to the province's municipalities.

"What is your reaction to Mr. Lougheed's announcement?" asked the Gazette.

"Well, I think the grant is very Liberal of him" replied Mr. Thibault with a smile.

posol, Ald. Ayotte said he was pleased the effort, on behalf of the Legion, had come to a successful conclusion. He said he hoped the city did acquire the parcel because although cemeteries were not an issue to which people paid much attention, they were a necessity. He thanked Mr. Jamison for carrying out the negotiations. However, council was unable to conclude its agenda Monday night, and the matter was left unresolved.

MOTEL IN PROGRESS

After lengthy debate and legal wrangles, the Sleep-Inn Motel is on its way to becoming a reality. The 36-unit motel will be located on the west side of the St. Albert Trail, on the site occupied by the Touch Inn Restaurant. The fast food outlet will remain on the premises as part of the motel complex, which will also include a 125 foot dining room and a 60 seat lounge. The manager's office and residence will also be located on the site. The project is being developed by Golden Flow Construction Ltd., at a total cost of $2.5 million. George Koch, Golden Flow's Vice President in charge of construction, says it is hoped the motel will be completed by June, in time to accommodate tourists, with the dining room-lounge area finished by mid-summer.

1,060 more parking stalls. Access to the underground parkade would probably be provided by extending the roadway behind the existing shopping centre.

SUGGESTS CITY BUY LOT

Mr. Werner Kratzenberg, the first of the residents to speak, did not have criticisms of the development but suggested to council the city investigate dividing Lot 30B in two parts, with the city buying the upper section and holding it as parkland in perpetuity. He stressed that he would not like to see a high-rise eventually constructed on top of the parkade and that this would prevent it. In a later comment on the suggestion, Lawyer Robert Gillespie warned that this would involve putting two zonings on one lot, which would be "inherently unsound."

Grandin residents who appeared to state their opposition to the proposal attacked it on a number of fronts. Residents felt the proposal would bring traffic onto residential streets and that the project would be a waste of parkland. The tennis court idea drew criticism, with complaints suggesting that high intensity lights would be used for night playing. These lights would shine in their backyards they maintained. The question of court management was also introduced, when one man stated people would have to be hired to run them. The underground parkade was seen to engender its own problem. One man felt the exhaust fumes would necessitate the use of large exhaust fans, which would blow the fumes into nearby homes.

The hotel idea failed to find favour with any of the residents. A fear was expressed that "people offensive to Grandin residents" might be attracted to the hotel's liquor outlets and that there would be an increase in the number of drunk drivers in the area. The hotel's planned height of five storeys was also criticized, as one Grandin resident commented it would obstruct her view of the river valley. The residents also thought their privacy would be invaded by the view from the upper storey rooms into their homes.

Ald. Liesbeth Bakker asked Mr. Murphy, of Grosvenor Blvd., what kind of future he saw for the Grandin Mall. He replied that the shopping centre should be restructured in a manner that would allow it to keep a neighborhood's shopping centre's hours of operation. This was one of several references, written and verbal, to Grandin Shoppers Park as a Neighborhood Shopping Centre. City Manager Bob Byron refuted this, saying that at no time had the mall been that type of shopping centre. Mrs. Bakker agreed, saying the site had a C1 designation, which had made a hotel possible at any time in its history. She made this remark to rebut an argument raised by one resident, when he said council had changed the rules in the middle of the game.

"We share your concerns," said Mrs. Bakker. "But we have not changed the rules."

AGREES TO LEASE

After the residents had stated their case, David Margolis, lawyer for the developer, said his client would give the city a lease on the surface lands of Lot 30B. The residents complaints prompted him to elaborate on several aspects of the development. He said that the tennis courts would be bermed, and that "we don't plan on shining lights in anybody's yard." He said that access to the park would improve with the extended roadway and that the changed Grandin Road access would make for better traffic routing. As to the hotel, he said it would be a "good anchor" for the downtown area and corrected an erroneous impression regarding the pub, which residents thought would have seating for 325. He stated the maximum is 125. He commented the shopping centre was "overdue for upgrading" and that the proposal was well within city standards for density, site coverage and parking requirements. He commented that it solved the problem of the 2.2 acre parcel and the plan for construction ensured none of the tenant businesses would be put out of operation during the transition.

Mr. Breadner suggested that the case of Lot 30B could be solved by the city purchasing it from the developer and then leasing the surface back to him. Mr. Margolis said this was a totally new proposition and he would have to examine it further.

In dealing with the matter, Ald. Bill Shields moved that the matter be deferred until the viability of obtaining the southern portion of Lot 30B was ascertained. This motion was defeated. Ald. Breadner moved first reading of the bylaw, and the motion was carried, by a vote of 4-3. Mr. Breadner stated that sections relating to 30B could be amended after first reading.

400 St. Albertans in Heart Fund Drive

The St. Albert Heart Association will try to raise $14,000 in the new 1979 Heart Campaign. To reach that goal, more than 400 St. Albert volunteers will be distributing life-saving information and collecting money.

In his proclamation designating February as Heart Month, Mayor Ron Harvey urged all residents of St. Albert to support the 1979 Heart Campaign. The mayor asked support for efforts of the St. Albert Heart Campaign in fighting the nation's Number One Killer, cardiovascular disease.

Mayor Harvey said these diseases claim more than 82,000 lives in Canada each year and account for over 50 percent of the deaths from all causes. The monies collected by the volunteer canvassers are used for research educational and community projects, dedicated to combatting diseases of the heart and circulatory system.

Please welcome your canvasser when she calls on Blitz Night, Wednesday, February 14, 1979.

Teachers want school year in contract?

Contract negotiations are usually a touchy subject at public meetings of school boards and this year does not appear to be an exception. The Protestant Board settled with their ATA Local on a two year contract last week but the Catholic District is still in the midst of bargaining.

One item that appears to be in dispute in District 3 (it's sometimes difficult to tell with all meetings and discussions by Trustees held behind closed doors) is the school year. When trustees were about to discuss alternatives for the 1979/80 school year, Board Negotiations Charman Don Lavoy asked that the subject be discussed 'in camera.' In past years, teachers have tried unsuccessfully to have the school year included in their contract and therefore it can be assumed that this is once more the case.

Trustee Jerry Manegre said he was not prepared to decide the school year without public input (likely an open meeting of the Board Policy Committee where the matter sits now) anyway and added that he didn't feel the school year should be part of negotiations. Trustee Lavoy responded saying that sometimes negotiations "expand beyond the contract."

From what other information the Gazette can gather the two sides are not that far apart on any major issues (i.e. salary, etc.). Perhaps a settlement will be possible in the near future.

Protestant District teachers signed for a 7.8% increase in the first year followed by 7.65% in 1980.

FOUR GENERATIONS

Four generations of the McCreath family gathered recently to celebrate the 95th birthday of Mrs. Margaret McCreath of the Youville Home, St. Albert. Seen here on the occasion are grandson Scott McCreath, Mrs. Margaret McCreath, son Bert McCreath and great grandson Andrew McCreath.

Mrs. Margaret McCreath celebrates 95th birthday

Mrs. Margaret McCreath of the Youville Home in St. Albert, recently celebrated her 95th birthday with family and friends.

Mrs. McCreath was born December 26, 1883 in Glasgow, Scotland and came to Edmonton in 1912. In that same year she married Robert McCreath. She has lived in Edmonton since then, moving to St. Albert in 1978. Mrs. McCreath has been a very active member of Central United Church and the Women's Auxiliary of the Typographical Union.

Joining in the festivities and extending birthday greetings were: Mrs. McCreath's son, Bert, and his wife, Nancy, from Saskatoon; Grandson Scott McCreath, his wife, Margrit, and great grandsons, Andrew and Jamie from St. Albert; Jack McCreath, Joyce and John Beaton, Eileen and Fred Russell from Edmonton.

Birthday wishes were also sent from grandchildren Marilyn McCreath of Vancouver, Murdine Thorpe of Prince Albert, Nancy Heron of Moose Jaw and three other great grandsons: David

Former resident murdered

Former St. Albert resident, Gary Curtis Wick, was murdered by an escaped prisoner near Whitehorse, Yukon, two weeks ago.

The prisoner, 18 year old Tommie Peter Johnson of Burwash Landing, Yukon, fled from police custody at a hockey game.

Wick, aged 25, was killed near his cabin, about eight kilometers south of Whitehorse.

Johnson surrendered to police January 28. A full investigation into Johnson's escape is underway.

Gary Wick was laid to rest Friday at Holy Cross Cemetery, following a funeral service at Park Memorial Chapel. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Wick of Edmonton, one brother, Kenneth John, and his fiancée Terry Junker of Ontario.

Around Town

After saving his money for the past 26 years, Chris Brothen, son of Lorne and Geneva, finally came up with the fare to Tahiti. Chris will spend 15 days in the sun spot, where he is enthralled with scuba diving. Diesel, as his "friends" call him, is reportedly very impressed with the natural beauties beneath the waves, on the waves, and on the beach. I'm sure half the city will crowd the air terminal when he returns this Friday.

School brought a delegation to city council Monday night.

Athletic coach John Coonie warned council that buying a track without the steeplechase was like buying a car with three wheels. Mr. Coonie said the lack of this facility would greatly reduce the use the track could be put to after the Alberta Summer Games. If such a steeplechase was included, St. Albert could host provincial and national junior championships. The steeplechase is an essential component of any provincial, national or international program, he stated.

Although he conceded the steeplechase could be added later, Mr. Coonie said it would cost twice as much to do it next year, rather than at the time of the rest of the construction, when men, machines and materials are on the site.

Roger Burrows, of the Alberta Track and Field Association supported Mr. Coonie in his arguments saying that although not many athletes participate in steeplechase itself, it is still required in any provincial program, and the lack of it would keep many athletes from being able to use the track.

"I'm impressed with the planning going into the track. You're going to have a beautiful facility--but you're missing a bit of it."

The Gazette REFLECTS

COMMUNICATION LACKING

The confusion which has arisen over the Protestant School Board's decision to change its name is a prime example of the necessity for regular communication between St. Albert's school districts. A decision by either Board which will have significant impact upon the other should not be finalized without prior joint discussion.

The Catholic Board learned first of the Protestant Board's intentions through a Gazette story. Trustees were compelled to take a 'reactionary' posture (see front page) to gain time to discuss the matter with their District 6 counterparts. Had the District 6 Board had the foresight to consult District 3 regarding the latter's position, they would have arrived at a compatible solution. Fortunately no 'hard feelings' have developed to this point although it is possible cause might have been found.

Prior to the October 1977 election the districts met on a regular basis to discuss matters of mutual concern. Perhaps it is time to revive the tradition.

PEOPLE TALKING BACK

Last week for the first time, Canadians heard the sound of their own voice. In producing People Talking Back, the CBC fulfilled its mandate as a nation builder, a kind of vocal CPR. The program showed people from all provinces talking at and to each other and those who weren't off by the diatribes of the interest group eventually heard the dialogue of compatriots. The former group hammered home our differences while the latter celebrated our common goals.

Historically we have held that our strength lay in our dissimilarities, but the program laid this disruptive theory to rest for once and for all. The electricity which became apparent during the discussions came from empathy, not the reverse. Newfoundland fishermen and Alberta cowboys were seen to be distant only in geography. This made the Quebec fiasco doubly unfortunate. Out of 180 minutes the Quebec delegation was on the air for six. And for the crowning irony was an Englishman! The others were of Dutch and English. However it is a tribute to the positive momentum of the program that even this major omission did not halt its impetus.

What rang out clearly Sunday night was not the chorus of multicultural diversity. It may be that were wrong in our reluctance to heat up the melting pot. Assimilation in this country has long been labelled a racist, tactic; part of the insidious British connection. We are rapidly running out of time to forge a Canadian connection, but Sunday night was a beginning.

Tax Tips

Your child may be a credit to you

Children born in 1961 or later may be a credit to their families, a tax credit that is. Under new legislation that took effect January 1, mothers, or in some cases fathers, whose family income is $18,000 or less can claim a $200 credit as a supplement to their family allowance payments for each eligible child. Families with incomes above $18,000 may also be eligible for some or all of the credit for their eligible children although the amount is reduced as total family income rises.

And according to Revenue Canada, Taxation, that means approximately 2.8 million Canadian families will be eligible to claim at least some or all of the $200 credit for their eligible children.

How does one identify an eligible child? Generally, children born in 1961 or later for whom a parent received family allowance in December 1978, are eligible for the credit.

The number of eligible children is recorded by Health and Welfare on the information slip (TFA1) sent to parents in January.

One copy of that information slip must be included with the completed tax return and schedule when the mother or father applies for the child tax credit at income tax time.

Generally only children for whom either the mother or father received family allowance payments last year are eligible for the credit. Foster children or children who are not maintained by their parents do not generally qualify for allowance payments and are therefore not eligible for the child tax credit.

What happens if a child is not included on the TFA1 information slip from Health and Welfare? A child born in December of last year will not be included on the TFA1 but may still be eligible for the credit. An award letter obtained from Health and Welfare to confirm eligibility for the credit must be included with the tax return and schedule at tax time.

Landed immigrants or parents who maintain children outside Canada should contact Health and Welfare to determine whether their children are eligible for family allowance payments and the tax credit.

There is no limit on the number of eligible children in a family provided they all meet the criteria outlined. A family whose income is $18,000 or less would receive the full $200 for each eligible child. As a family's income rises above $18,000, the amount of the credit is reduced. For instance, a family with four eligible children with a family income of $28,000 would receive a total credit of $300.

To help calculate the exact amount of the credit, a one page application form (Schedule 10) was included with the January family allowance cheque. The completed schedule must be submitted with the tax return by whichever parent receives the family allowance. In most cases this will be the mother, although single-parent homes headed by the father would be exceptions.

Parents will have noticed already that their family allowance payments were reduced in January as part of the new tax credit system. The reduction could mean not less but more money for families in the middle to low income range who complete the schedule and tax return and mail them to their Taxation Centre at tax filing time.

A free leaflet, entitled You

Were Asking About the Child Tax Credit is available at the District Taxation Offices, 9820 - 107 Street, Edmonton. Any questions may be directed to 425-7767.

What qualities should a superintendent have?

Recruiting a new district superintendent has seen the adoption of an unusual approach at the Protestant School District.

The present Superintendent, Elmer Gish, will be retiring effective December 31, 1979 and the process of selecting his replacement has begun. The 'unusual' touch is the Board's decision to seek public input in the form of a questionnaire. It is specifically intended for parent advisory groups, the administrator's council, and St. Albert Local 73 of the ATA, but other groups or individuals will also be able to put forward their opinions.

The above mentioned have until February 19 to make their comments known to Selection Committee Chairman Scott Friese.

The questionnaire, which asks only what attributes and abilities should be possessed by the successful candidate, can be obtained by calling Mrs. Shirley Holman at St. Albert Protestant School District #6 - 458-2060.

Trustee Friese told the Gazette the Committee was soliciting input on the basis they might pick up new ideas. It was not delegating any decision making but was attempting to encourage public dialogue.

K of C is really out for blood

The Knights of Columbus are out for blood. Once again the organization is working to replenish the supplies of whole blood and blood components by holding a five-day long blood donor clinic.

The clinic will be held at the K of C Centre, 10140 - 119 Street in Edmonton. Those who require transportation from St. Albert can take one of three buses leaving at 4:15 p.m., 5:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

TO THE EDITOR

Curfew "Cliches" Criticized

Many of the published responses to Edmonton's curfew issue have a mentality commensurate with mid-day TV serials. The editorial in the Gazette on January 31 was clever enough to gather all the cliches into one heap. But, I fear some people might have taken the editorial seriously and was prompted to write this letter.

Our youth are not hardened criminals, conspiring to overthrow civilization. However, they can get into trouble when they are just hanging around with nothing to do and nowhere to go. We (society) have several options in dealing with this situation. We can ignore the problem, let the kids get into trouble and pay the social and economic costs. We can provide "night care" centres with facilities to occupy the youth at all hours. Or we can send the youth home to their parents.

Edmonton's citizens will have much influence in the decision coming before council. Sensationalism sells newspapers; let's hope it doesn't sell our kids down the river.

Catholic District step closer to five year budgeting

Trustees of the Catholic School District have okayed a request from Finance Chairman Ken Porter to allow an expenditure of up to $1,000 to develop a computer program designed to work out a five year budget for the district.

Once the program has been developed the computer will cut valuable time by allowing quick work using several variables. Trustee Porter told fellow members the Board could have four or five alternate five year plans within a couple of days once a program had been developed. Costs would also be cut in the years to come directly due to human time saved. Trustee Porter estimated the yearly costs to be about $200 to $300.

HOUSING PLAN APPROVED

Students in District 3 will be attending the same schools next year as they are presently attending if the student housing plan remains as approved by the Board Monday night.

Grade one students from Mission Park now attending Albert Lacombe School will continue in the Grandin area school for grade two. Students entering grade one next year and living in Mission will also be bused to Albert Lacombe.

Any students coming out of the new Abacus condominiums will be bused to Vital Grandin.

Trustee Manegre asked the administration that, if it was at all possible, to form a grade one class at Father Jan in order that the community school concept could be maintained in Mission Park. He asked if bringing students from Abacus would help but Superintendent Bill Zielinski said it was not likely enough pupils of the right age group would reside there.

Mr. Manegre also asked about the possibility of a split - grade one/two class but Dr. Zielinski didn't think this was a desirable alternative from an educational point of view.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Trustee Manegre served notice of motion Monday that will ask the Board to form an Education Committee to review proposed and existing educational programs offered by the district. The Standing Committee would, by this description, be similar to one already existing in the Protestant District.

PUBLIC COMMITTEE MEETINGS

The Catholic School Board's Building and Sites Committee will discuss the Woodlands Park Plan - Stage One at its regular meeting tomorrow night.

The public is also welcome to attend the Board Policy meeting slated for Monday, February 12 at which student and staff parking and district communications will be discussed.

Both meetings commence at 7:30 p.m. in the District Office on St. Vital Avenue.

Council Briefs

Council hears of Games progress

Dick Fowler, Chairman of the Board of Directors for the St. Albert Alberta Summer Games appeared before council Monday night with a progress report on Games preparations. Mr. Fowler commented that new facilities will be required for the track and field events and horseshoes only. An anonymous party has agreed to donate the horseshoe venue. Check the Gazette sports pages each week for Games updates.

Council attended to a number of recommendations from its Administration Committee. A motion was passed that the provincial government be approached regarding a grant to investigate alternative LRT right-of-ways between Edmonton and St. Albert. In addition council decided that no changes should be made to the Library board bylaw until after the Woods-Gordon report on Organization is submitted. A third motion also carried, authorizing the striking of a subcommittee to examine the provision of civic offices for recommendation to council.

It was decided that the Court of Revision will meet on the third Tuesday of each month as required. It can meet with greater frequency if it deems this necessary.

Guides honored at annual meeting

More than 50 guiders from as far north as Athabasca and west to Mayerthorpe gathered at Vincent J. Maloney School in St. Albert for the Girl Guides of Canada, Tamarac area annual meeting, February 3, 1979.

At this meeting the following people were elected to office: Lorraine Dell, Spruce Grove, member at large; Kathy Hutton, Bon Accord, member at large; Teresa Malden, Stony Plain, executive member; Wreford O'Hara, St. Albert, executive member; Anne Sargent, St. Albert, area treasurer; Pauline Vaugeois, St. Albert, area secretary; and Dorothy Russell, Redwater, area commissioner.

Mrs. Wreford O'Hara of St. Albert, present Tamarac area commissioner, received Certificate of Merit and Mrs. Teresa Malden of Stony Plain, was presented with the Medal of Merit. The latter is awarded to members for exceptional service to the Girl Guides of Canada. Mrs. Dorothy Russell of Redwater received the Bar for Long Service, which is granted to any member of the organization for 10 years faithful and efficient service. Mrs.

Anne Sargent, treasurer of the Tamarac Area Council was presented with the Blue Thanks Badge for her exceptional service to the Guiding movement in Tamarac area. Mrs. Joyce Smith received a Certificate of Merit from Tamarac area on her retirement as area music advisor.

Mrs. Wreford O'Hara retires from guiding

Mrs. Wreford O'Hara, area commissioner for the Tamarac Guiding area, is retiring from the guide movement after several years of dedicated service.

Mrs. O'Hara began her guiding career in Toronto as a lieutenant and a badge secretary. When she and her family moved to St. Albert in October of 1970 she took up the duties as captain of Nipigon Ranger Company. In February of the following year she became lieutenant for the group and by June she was Sturgeon River District Commissioner. In September of 1972 she took up the position of division commissioner with responsibility for St. Albert, but in May of 1974 Tamarac Area needed her. She has been area training rep. since September, 1978 besides working as an area commissioner.

Nine Brownies "fly up" to Guides

A fly up ceremony was held January 31 at Vital Grandin school for nine girls who completed their Brownie program. They are now eligible to enter Girl Guides.

Fly ups from 1st pack were Sanghita Brahmacharie, Cindy Devoy, Yvonne Dixon, Leslie Sadleir. From 7th pack

Sharon Schonbeck, Laurel Ann Wheatley, Charlene Yarrow. From 11th pack - Jacqueline Begin and Tammy Mitchell.

The girls are all looking forward to the challenges presented by Guides.

Around Town

Last week the Gazette noted that the St. Albert Board of Education's project to combat vandalism during school hours had received attention as far away as Vancouver. Well the word has now spread across Canada. Friday morning CBC 'Morningside' host Don Harron spoke with Board Chairman Wes Penner regarding the 'Project Incentive Pilot Study' (PIPS). Maybe the Board should copyright the idea and sell it by franchise to other districts. At any rate this sort of exposure will definitely pressure the District to continue producing the positive results the program has shown so far. It has been said that any new idea will prove successful in its initial stages. The trick here will be maintaining the students' enthusiasm over a long period of time.

One of the sadder moments experienced by any organization is the retirement of one of its members. Show to feature contemporary weaving

Visitors to the next St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild display and sale will enjoy a change of scene, as the Guild moves its wares to a new venue. Instead of the usual Arts Centre location the Guild's Textile Show will be held at the Lacombe Clubhouse. The show will be held on Saturday and Sunday, February 17 and 18, from 1 - 4 p.m.

The show is open to all Guild members who wish to display their work. However, the work of two members, Ria Bogaert and Verna Allenby will be showcased. Ria's work has been publicized in the Gazette in the past two weeks. This week, the spotlight will be on the work of Ms. Allenby.

USES VARIED TECHNIQUES

Verna began her work in weaving five years ago, and took several courses given by experienced weavers and fibre artists. She has developed an interest in contemporary forms of weaving such as wall-hangings and free-form sculptural creations as well as more traditional forms such as pillow bags and shawls. She weaves on a large four harness floor loom. Verna employs techniques other than weaving to achieve her final effect, utilizing knitting, knotting, crocheting, hooking and applique. She particularly enjoys creating highly textured wall-hangings of unusual shape and three dimensional effect.

Verna enjoys using home-spun yarns dyed naturally, with colours taken from grasses, mosses, and wild-flowers, which she finds around her country home.

The works of Verna Allenby have been regularly displayed in the Sequoia Gallery in Edmonton. Special shows of her creations are often held at Galleries in both Edmonton and Calgary. Much of her work is privately commissioned.

In the upcoming Guild exhibit, Verna will primarily display wall-hangings, as well as cushions, handbags, shawls and lampshades.

Although this show is at the Lacombe Clubhouse, the Art Centre store on Sunset Boulevard will be open at the same time for the sale of articles. In addition, the store is open every Thursday night from 7 - 9 p.m., as well as Saturday and Sunday from 1 - 4 p.m.

Majorettes need volunteer teachers

St. Albert's Majorette Corps has mushroomed since its inception last fall. There are now 91 girls from age seven and up taking part in the Corps, and their enthusiasm is high. However, enthusiasm is not enough. The girls need instruction from those with experience in the activity but so far, not enough volunteers have come forward.

The instruction is not time-consuming, as instructors are called upon for one Saturday session only every two weeks. The sessions are one hour long. The instruction period will continue only until the end of the season in May. At that time only girls wishing to participate in specific events will be practicing.

Anyone who has experience (twirling a baton) is urged to contact Gail Griffiths during the day at 459-4461 or 458-8098 in the evening.

Party offices

The provincial election draws nearer, and the various parties are gearing up for the coming contest. In order to effectively plot their respective strategies, each will be needing a campaign headquarters. The Conservatives opened their Grandin Mall office Monday for the Myrna Fyfe campaign while the other parties have offices in the planning stages. NDP members are casting about St. Albert for office space for candidate Bob Borneson but finding it elusive. They are considering the use of a trailer, as are the Liberals. Gerry Thibault's team reports that he and federal candidate Len Nobert plan on sharing the use of a trailer for their headquarters.

Candidates, platforms, offices -- now the only thing missing is the date?

LEND A HELPING HAND

As the poster states clearly, these members of the 8th Brownie Pack each share in the work of constructing posters that will be displayed in Grandin Mall beginning the week of February 19. Guide and Scout Week will be highlighted by Thinking Day, February 22.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

The ladies from the Beta Sigma Phi, Alpha Theta Chapter recently donated $1,300.00 towards the purchase of a Resusci-Doll which is the first one in St. Albert. Making the presentation on behalf of the Alpha Theta Chapter is Isabel Van Essen (left) Ways and Means chairman, Jan Aikens president, Dayle McManaman service chairman, Pauline Fleck director of nursing and hospital administrator Cliff Keyes.

Board wants say. in planning of library

The St. Albert Library Board held its regular January meeting on January 18, 1979. At the start of the meeting Ms. Sydney Wood, the new children's librarian was introduced to the Board and welcomed by the chairman, Mr. Dennis Ward. The Board spent some time in discussing the ad hoc citizen's reports on cultural facilities, the proposed Recreation Master Plan, which must have a cultural component, and the possibility of preliminary planning on a new library being done without input from the Board. It was decided to authorize the chairman to write to council requesting a meeting to discuss a new library for St. Albert at a time suitable to council.

It was also decided to establish a Building Committee to propose tentative plans for a new building.

The Board then reviewed the librarian's request to have the previously planned reduction in clerical hours cancelled. This necessitated both a review of the budget and the general implications of this reduction in overall clerical hours. The effect on service was reviewed, especially keeping the library open 63 hours during the winter. After lengthy discussion, the Board agreed to rescind its motion to reduce the hours of clerical staff.

In order to present a reasonable budget to City Council, even in view of the $3,388.96 increase in the provincial library grant, the Board decided to reduce somewhat its amount to be spent on library materials.

The meeting then adjourned at 11 p.m.

Sorority donates to hospital

Training of all hospital personnel and St. Albert paramedics in the art of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation will be greatly enhanced thanks to the generosity of the Alpha Theta Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

The Chapter this week donated $1,300 to the Sturgeon General Hospital which is slated for the purpose of purchasing a Resusci-Ann doll. The doll, the finest model available will put St. Albert on a par with the Alberta Heart Foundation Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation programs.

The St. Albert Chapter, in a joint service/ways and means project, organized a disco last September to raise the funds for their 1978/79 project.

St. Albert Air Cadets in Review

Keen interest is being shown in #533's junior and senior drill teams as the competition dates rapidly approach. Practices were held for both teams on Sunday afternoon and the sharpness and attentiveness was evident as the cadets displayed their form.

Rifle range practice was held Sunday AM, and the cadets showed well. This was our first time with the new rifles which apparently are quite different from the ones previously used. OC Armstrong states the new rifles are stiffer and more difficult to handle. As the weeks progress we're confident all cadets will have the opportunity to fire and become familiar with the new rifles. This activity always proves to be very popular.

A visit from #524 Squadron tomorrow evening will be a highlight of our parade. Hopefully roads and weather conditions will improve so that this visit will occur as scheduled. More on this in next week's article.

A keen cadet/reporter Sgt. Cheryl Leibel will be writing this article in future. Cheryl has been with #533 Squadron three years and is a keen and hard worker. Sgt. Leibel has attended several camps and last summer spent six weeks in Vernon on a band course. She is a member of #533's band, as well as the senior drill team. Sgt. Leibel is an enthusiastic and interested cadet and we wish her much luck in her future endeavours as reporter. GOOD LUCK!

Large gathering pays tribute to June Kendel

An overflow crowd attended the funeral services held February 2, 1979, for June Doris Kendel at All Saints Lutheran Church in Edmonton. Pastor Paul G. Eifert conducted the impressive service with warmth and dignity around a theme from the Gospel of St. John, "The Master is here and is asking for you."

Members of the Royal Canadian Army Legion, St. Albert Branch, and of the Ladies Auxiliary and Associates formed two Guards of Honour. Following the service, Legion funeral rites were performed with Legion Chaplain, the Rev. Len Musto of St. Albert United Church, and Shirley Sorsdahl, President of the Auxiliary, officiating.

Organist was Mrs. Florence Greilach of Mellowdale Lutheran Church, a church which Mrs. Kendel had actively supported during her years in Barrhead, Alberta, particularly the work of the Women's Missionary League.

Serving as pallbearers were Rudy Schriber, Ron Bull, Walter Swenarchuk, Ross Hutton, Reg Bremner and Len Jones.

Lunch was served in the St. Albert Legion Hall following the service by Legion and Auxiliary members. Interment will be in a Legion Field of Honour.

June Thomas was born June 8, 1923 in Mayerthorpe, Alberta, and was one of a family of seven. During the war she joined the Canadian Womens Army Corps, serving in Edmonton, Calgary and Suffield Experimental Station and at Camp Borden, where she completed a dietician's course with the highest marks ever achieved to that time.

By the time June received her discharge, her mother had moved to Portage La Prairie, and so it was that June moved to Manitoba and found work in the town of Russell, the home town of Orland Kendel. The couple were married December 1, 1946 and two years later moved to Barrhead, where Ole was employed in the farm machinery business. June became active in the Lutheran Church and in the work of the Barrhead Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion Auxiliary. She had become interested in the aims of the Legion and Auxiliary during her four years of army service, and serving those objectives was to be a major endeavor all of her life.

JUNE KENDEL

The Kendel family moved to St. Albert in June of 1967

and enjoyed the community thoroughly from the outset. Through work as Welcome Wagon hostess, June made many friends, a number of whom remained close friends throughout the more than eleven years she lived here.

The Kendels soon discovered that the St. Albert Branch of the Legion was about to give up its charter. June went to work and successfully built up the Auxiliary and Ole worked in the Branch. Aided by a few steadfast members and with the help of the Provincial President and District Commander, Branch 271 never looked back, and Mrs. Kendel continued to work in many positions.

Mrs. Kendel was awarded the first Life Membership in the St. Albert Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. "June's attitude and the example she has set have been a guideline for all Auxiliary members" said President Shirley Sorsdahl, delivering the citation.

Mrs. Kendel was also honoured with the prestigious silver service medal

Omission noted

In last week's write-up of the Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year banquet, an omission was made. Amongst the contributors of gifts to Gerry Dux was Vic Post, who gave a gift certificate for a portrait. The Bank of Montreal donated a silver dollar.

in recognition of outstanding service to St. Albert Branch. June was an excellent cook and throughout her life, enjoyed cooking and baking of all kinds, a hobby which turned into a part-time business when she ran a bake-shop service in Barrhead. Another hobby which she enjoyed with her husband and friends was playing bridge.

Those people who knew June Kendel respected her absolute fairness and honesty, her rejection of anything petty or mean, her readiness to give of her understanding and warmth to people facing difficulties and her personal integrity.

She will be sadly missed and long remembered by all who knew her, and by this community.

Card of Thanks

We would like to say a grateful thank you to the many people who supported us through a time of sorrow in the loss of our beloved June. To Drs. Tworek, Mirlin and Skrobot, the nurses and hospital staff at Sturgeon General; to Pastor Paul Eifert and Chaplain Len Musto; to the members of the St. Albert Legion, the Auxiliary and the Associates.

Also deeply appreciated were the messages of sympathy, flowers, thoughtful acts of kindness and contributions to the Cancer Society, Legion Building Fund, Heart Fund, Diabetic Association and the Lutheran Hour. Your love and compassion means a great deal to us all.

New school to save energy

Alberta's first school of a new, energy-saving design is being built in Edmonton. The experimental Sweetgrass Elementary School is being constructed for the Edmonton Public System. When completed in September, 1979, the new school is expected to function on half the energy consumed by existing schools of the same size.

Alan Palmer, a planner with Edmonton Public, said, "From a technical standpoint, this school could become a model for all of the province."

The new school building is the result of a three-part project on energy-conserving designs for new schools. Backed by Alberta Education, Edmonton Public School District staff members Palmer and Tim Miner worked with the firm Minsos Vaitunas Jamieson Architects Ltd. to analyze existing school buildings and design a more energy efficient one.

Dr. Warren Hathaway of Alberta Education's Planning and Research Branch said, "Most schools in Alberta were built at a time when energy was cheap and plentiful. Today's increasing energy costs together with future energy shortages give energy conservation a high priority within the total program of school planning." The new school design project has been co-ordinated by Dr. Hathaway's office, along with related projects on energy management and energy-conserving modifications to existing schools.

The first step in this project was an analysis of energy conservation in schools built with traditional construction methods and materials. Planner Palmer said, "We wanted to look at what could be done with basic materials and systems to reach the federal energy standard of 250 kilowatt hours per square meter per year." (This is a formula which applies to all forms of energy, allowing accurate determination of total consumption).

Building components were analyzed to establish optimum specifications. Included were comparisons of roof systems, wall systems, lighting layouts, glazing areas, mechanical systems, and air supply systems. This basic data on existing schools was then subject to computer analysis.

Said Palmer, "It was a surprise to find out how wasteful existing buildings are. But we were pleasantly surprised to discover it was not as difficult as we expected to use existing technology to achieve federal government standards. It's how you put the pieces of the puzzle together to meet the desired goal."

SCHOOL SHAPE IMPORTANT

A major design feature to maximize energy conservation is the shape of the new school. It is as nearly square as possible, with the gymnasium located toward the centre of the building to reduce outside wall and roof area. Substantial roof and wall insulation will be closely fitted with perimeter foundation insulation.

The building's positioning was also carefully planned to take advantage of solar heat gain during the winter and to reduce it in summer months. Vestibules at all entrances will minimize infiltration of outside air. The school's mechanical system and electrical and lighting systems were also designed for maximum efficiency.

CLASSROOMS WILL BE COOLER

Among specifications for energy saving is a plan to dim lights in hallways during classes and in classrooms during breaks. Hot water temperature will be reduced, and there also will be a slight lowering in classroom temperatures.

The new, energy conserving design will cost an estimated $35.98 per square metre more to build than a regular school. But indications are that the additional cost will be recouped from energy savings within three to five years.

Once completed, the new school will be monitored for two years, to see if the computer's prediction of the school's energy consumption holds true.

If Sweetgrass Elementary School lives up to expectations, we'll be seeing more like it in coming years.

Said Palmer, "Any school jurisdiction planning to build a new school ought to take a look at this one first."

With energy conservation high in priority at both St. Albert school districts as well as the Sturgeon, Thibault and Legal districts, Palmer's suggestion will definitely be taken to heart.

Teachers convention

School's out!

Children attending school get a break this week and many parents are scrambling for babysitters as St. Albert teachers prepare for their annual convention to be held tomorrow and Friday. They will be gathering in Edmonton at the Edmonton Plaza, Four Seasons and Macdonald Hotel along with their 4,000 colleagues from the surrounding area. The theme this year will be "School: Intensive Caring Unit," and will focus on the aspects of responsibility, stress, and challenge.

There will be about 106 sessions, and tours taking place in Edmonton and surrounding areas. About 100 speakers from all over North America will talk to the educators. Teachers will choose sessions in which they are interested and will be able to hear about six to eight speakers during these two days.

Thursday morning keynote speakers will be Father Lucien Larre, the director of the Bosco Home for Emotionally Disturbed Adolescents and Mrs. George Mazer of McGill University. The teacher-trustee luncheon on Friday noon will be addressed by Diane Jones-Konihowski.

CHINESE COOKING

Student Diane McClure takes over from Instructor Elaine Durst in the preparation of Almond Guy Ding - a chicken dish. The classes are held at Paul Kane, Monday nights. Tempting isn't it.

Verdi's MacBeth comes to Jubilee

Canadians, baritone Louis Quilico and conductor Pierre Hetu, will be reunited with U.S. soprano Marisa Galvany, when the Edmonton Opera Association presents Verdi's MacBeth in the Jubilee Auditorium on February 22, 24 and 26. The trio first appeared together in the CBC TV film of MacBeth in 1973.

Mr. Quilico, who is making his third appearance with the E.O.A., is celebrated throughout the operatic world for his interpretation of MacBeth. The role of Lady MacBeth, sung by Marisa Galvany, is one of the test pieces in the operatic repertoire. Miss Galvany's endless vocal resources make her ideally suited for the part. Maestro Hetu conducting the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra will have the challenge of welding together the highly melodious score with its tightly knit set numbers, dramatic scenes, exacting vocal line and extended ensembles.

Macbeth, based on Shakespeare's play, is a remarkable instance of the composer's gift for characterization. It is a story without love interest, even between secondary characters.

Though it does contain the essential scenes and much of the text of Shakespeare's play, it is considerably reduced from five Acts and 27 Scenes to four Acts and nine Scenes.

Giorgio Tozzi, who last appeared here in the E.O.A.'s Norma in 1975, returns in the role of Banquo and Eugenio Fernandi makes his debut as Macduff. Lary Benson, has been cast as Malcolm and Merla Aikman is to sing the Lady-In-Waiting to Lady Macbeth. The sets, by Nicola Benois, and the costumes by Suzanne Mess were originally designed for the Greater Miami Opera Association.

Irving Guttman will stage the production and the chorus is under the direction of Albert Krywolt.

Tickets for Macbeth will go on public sale February 3 at four locations -- Citadel Theatre, Mikes, Students' Union Box Office in Hub and the Opera Office at 503, 10102 - 101 Street.

Skeptic's Tank

By Vicky Knight

The subject of today's diatribe is a fiendish little book that sneaked into the Gazette office via the Post Office. According to the accompanying letter, it is also being sent to various schools. Heaven forbid! I hope any educator getting a copy will either throw it out or use it as the basis for a class in morality and ethics, or the lack of them. The book is simply and immodestly entitled "The Orator." The words within are excerpts from speeches made by one Peter Nivio Zarlenga. From the self-adulating tone of the introductory verses, Mr. Zarlenga makes Jim Jones sound like Uriah Heep. We are told this "self made man from Chicago" is the greatest orator alive in the world today and that "Gods and kings tremble when this man speaks." As both deities and royalty are in short supply these days, this claim has a rather hollow ring.

The book is set in large type and is divided into sections, each neatly compartmentalized. The titles are telling: "A Letter to Myself," "What Could I Have Done," "I Am Thought," "I Am You." It represents the worst of this Age of Narcissus which we are now enduring. The language of the book suggests that the author was a real "growth groupie" at some time, probably going to est, being Rolfed, Primally Screaming and getting TA'ed and TM'ed into a state of intellectual coma. (I should know, having been through this unfortunate phase, ested and bested by the growth movement. I plead temporary insanity). The book abounds with the buzzwords of the consciousness-raising set. They are marvellous words — arrange them in any order and they still mean nothing. Mumble vaguely about the essence of being or the being of essence and Presto! Instant profundity! Add a liberal scattering of reality, truth, love, beauty, self, space and experience and you're nearly a guru.

As a graduate guru, Mr. Zarlenga does not neglect the scientific method in proving the validity of his insights. The book is dotted with strange little charts showing such things as the difference between what a man can do and what he actually does. These are neatly laid out on a pseudo-graph with curves to illustrate human potential etc. Mr. Zarlenga is not at all inhibited by the fact that such things cannot be measured: he solves that neatly by leaving out the lines and numbers from his graph!

The preachy little slogans throughout are too, too precious. Take this original gem: "Divide your movement into easy to do sections. If you fail, divide again." Judging by the number of sections in this book, Mr. Zarlenga's literary footsteps have been dogged by tiny failures.

Here's a sample of Mr. Zarlenga's insight: "It is conceptualization that is the elevated act of humankind being called dignity." I bet you didn't know that.

Were Mr. Z. only another silly sloganizer I wouldn't bother criticizing. But he is primarily a subtle disseminator of fear. He's out to create enough paranoia that he can then messianically appear to save us. Dark hints of conspiracy glower throughout the book. The reader is told he is being penalized for his virtue, and constantly lied to.

Well, stirring up anxieties is not nice, but neither is it restricted to the "orator." Parents, preachers and politicians do it too. It starts early, as in "Do such and such, or you'll be skinny and have sand kicked in your face," or, a variation: "Don't do such and such — you'll go blind!" Zarlenga is merely more elaborate in his prodding of the national neuroses, and his motives are distinctly suspect. On page 38, he takes off the gloves for the haymaker, and the target is a shocker. It appears that all this puffery has been leading to an attack on Christianity. Readers are told that those who put God over America are killing America. And Christians aren't the only villains. Socialists too are plotting against us.

From here on, the cracks in the orator's facade start gaping. Under the guise of some nebulous freedom-fight, the Orator attacks the church, the school and any other institution suspected of housing an intellect superior to his own. His suspicions are valid. Even the civil service house-greater thinkers. The book is devious drivel, and unfortunately, some are always vulnerable.

The vulnerable ones are the focus of the last pages, and the only surprise is that he took so long to make the pitch. After three pages of trance-like, hypnotic gibberish, the reader is told to "stand up once more-get up one more time right now — get up and get your cheque book and order as many copies of this book as you can afford."

Can you afford it? Unfortunately you must. The book's availability is the painful price we must pay for the privilege of free speech. Sometimes, its mighty expensive.

Young Walterdale to produce farce

In the summer of 1958 Walterdale Theatre staged a colorful farce written by Francis Swann entitled "Out of the Frying Pan." This year, the company celebrates its 20th season within the Edmonton Theatre community and presents - once more with feeling - "Out of the Frying Pan."

Each year the Walterdale Stage has been taken over by some of Edmonton's finest young drama buffs and this year the young Walterdale cast is directed by George Bertwell. George last appeared on stage as "Gramps" in the very successful run of "Artichoke," a Canadian drama about the prairies.

George, along with a very youthful cast give a full evenings entertainment in a story about a group of would-be stage folk trying to make it big in show business.

The play runs from February 20 to 24 ... five nights only. To avoid missing this bouncy production, reserve tickets now by calling the Bay ticket office at 424-0121. There are only 150 seats for each of the five nights performances. Walterdale Theatre is located at 10322 - 83 Avenue in old #6 Fire Hall.

SCHOOL Gazette

Paul Kane Kibitzer

By Shauna Oor

This past Friday, Paul Kane's annual Sadie Hawkins day dance was held in the Community Hall.

Do you want the good news or the bad news first? Okay ... the good news.

It was the most well attended dance the school has held this year. There were more teachers supervising than there have been for three or four years. It is also the first dance on which the school actually made a profit.

Unfortunately, most of that will be used to pay for the damage inflicted on the hall. Although the rental of the hall included clean-up by the hall's staff the situation was such that three diligent members of Paul Kane's staff stayed an hour to help.

But, student behaviour was less than desirable. Damage was less than acceptable.

I don't believe it is the function of the Students' Union to provide entertainment for individuals who are not in anyway connected with the school and whose sole interests are inflicting damage and confusion. In the future, Student Union events will be restricted to Paul Kane Student Union members (i.e. anyone with an I.D. card).

Mr. Betchel felt that alot of the problem was allowing irresponsible people into the dance premises.

"It just wasn't acceptable behaviour," said Mr. Scarnati. It's unfortunate that this is the end result. I suppose this alternative has been proposed to keep the "riff raff" out of Paul Kane and yet this columnist got the impression that a lot of the trouble was coming from students within the school.

On a lighter note, the Spirit River String Band played well and reacted patiently to an unco-operative audience, although communication was not good. The band tried fruitlessly to organize a square dance but halfway through, most of the squares had culminated into one large circle. Good effort, though.

PENNY PINCHERS

Take 16 classes and a contest to align pennies in a straight line and what do you end up with? 41,000 pennies and several enthusiastic youngsters ready to bag the bounty at Lorne Akins annual Fund Raiser for Charities. The students compete to see which class can build the straightest line using the most pennies.

Students debate children's rights

The guarantee of full human rights for children will be the focus of student law seminars throughout Alberta in February.

The Alberta Debate and Speech Association, in co-operation with the Alberta Law Foundation, will conduct six seminars for Junior and Senior high school students in Edmonton, Calgary, Athabasca, Picture Butte and Spirit River.

Morning sessions on each occasion will be devoted to seminars conducted by experts in the area of Children's Rights and Civil Liberties. Guests will include, barristers, social workers, judges, police officers, civil rights workers, persons from the media, as well as representatives from governmental agencies. Participating students will have the opportunity to exchange views with seminar leaders.

Afternoon sessions will see students debate both sides of the resolution related to the theme for the seminar "that children be guaranteed by law full human rights."

The seminars are part of the year long program sponsored by the Alberta Debate and Speech Association involving more than 8,000 students in 200 Alberta high schools. This program will conclude in March with a series of Regional and Provincial Championships leading to the selection of the Alberta Delegation to participate in the Canadian Student Debating Seminar to be conducted in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

In Edmonton, the seminar will be February 10 at McNally Senior High.

Elim Chapel is pleased to announce that commencing January 16, 1979 a Free Christian Family Counselling Service will be available for St. Albert residents.

For appointment contact Mr. Harold Peacock or George Gumas between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. on Tuesday evenings. Phone 459-5181.

All counselling sessions will be dealt with in strict confidence.

St. Albert High Reports

By Renata Joly

After the regular confusion during and following final exams of the first semester, St. Albert High School students were thrown into another pile of madness. Faced with new subjects, new teachers, and often new classmates, students are apt to rush about in a state of turmoil for the first couple of days of the new semester.

To help them get started, Debate Club members, Janice Cherniak and Bernie Bolton will be representing St. Albert at the Fifth Annual Law Seminar Debates on February 10 at McNally Composite. The seminar, jointly sponsored by the Alberta Law Foundation and the Alberta Debate and Speech Association, is examining the issue of children's rights.

Our skiing co-ordinator, Mr. Reid, says that due to increasing apathy, local ski trips may end up being cancelled. Come on all you people who signed up, get going!

To get the spirit rolling for the new semester, Student's Council has organized a dance for tonight. Featured is the band Falcon Chase.

It seems as though students are getting back into the swing of things. School has settled back into its normal pace with its regular mixture of both good and bad.

Need help with a houseplant?

The Edmonton Horticultural Society will hold a public meeting at 8 p.m., Monday, February 12, 1979 at the Norwood United Church Hall, 11610 - 95A Street. The subject is "Living with Houseplants."

Wesley Anderson of the Provincial Greenhouse will be the guest speaker. A slide presentation will be followed by a question period. There will be refreshments and a door prize.

Everyone is welcome to bring their plant problems and join in the discussion groups.

Pity the poor orange. Everybody loves it but nobody wants to squeeze it.

That paradox is the basis of a multi million-dollar business known as the orange juice industry. North Americans seem to want their morning start-up fluid in anything but its natural container. We buy it frozen, canned, bottled or cartoned. We even buy imitations. But we seldom buy the real thing.

And there's one good reason -- it's too expensive. It would cost more than twice as much to squeeze your morning juice from fresh oranges.

So we're faced with a myriad of manufactured orange beverages, many of them claiming to deliver the same taste and nutritional value as fresh-squeezed orange juice. To help us make an educated choice among these products, Consumer and Corporate Affairs Canada has compiled some facts and figures.

*The most important nutrient in orange juice is Vitamin C (or ascorbic acid). Health and Welfare Canada says the average person needs 30 milligrams daily of this essential vitamin, children under seven years of age need 20 mg, and pregnant and lactating women need 50 and 60 mg respectively. This vitamin becomes less active when exposed to heat, light or air.

*Not all orange juice provide the same amount of Vitamin C. The frozen concentrates usually give you the most for your money.

*Orange flavor crystals do not contain orange juice, nor will they make orange juice when you add water. These products are simply ingenious imitations of the real thing. Although many brands contain Vitamin C, the other nutrients that naturally occur in orange juice, such as potassium, iron and thiamin, are not there.

*Ounce for ounce, unsweetened orange juice contains about the same number of calories as many carbonated soft drinks. Sweetened juices, of course, contain many more calories.

*Reconstituted orange juice is made from a concentrate. Water has been added in the proportion required to make regular orange juice. This type is often sold in bottles or cartons.

*Canned, unfrozen orange juice might have a "tinny" taste which is imparted by the can itself. It's perfectly safe to drink, but many people don't like the taste. It's also safe to keep canned juice in its can (in the refrigerator, of course), but keep it covered to protect the Vitamin C.

*Because it is a natural source of Vitamin C, any product which is 100 percent orange juice is not required to list its Vitamin C content on the label. The actual amount of Vitamin C may vary from brand to brand and according to the time at which the oranges were processed.

Quilters Corner

Something simple

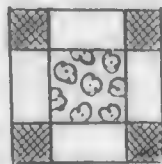

By Barbara Kelcey
(No. 1 in a series of blocks based upon a three inch grid).

Many patterns can be made from a few simple templates. This week we give you the three inch block, a rectangle which is one half of this block and a smaller square which is one fourth the area of the original square. With these three pieces your choices are infinite. The block diagrams show a simple four patch (#1) which would look lovely in scraps, a double nine-patch, (#2) - an all-over scrap pattern, and a more complicated nine patch variation (#3).

Save these template patterns for future use as we will add more block patterns which will require them.

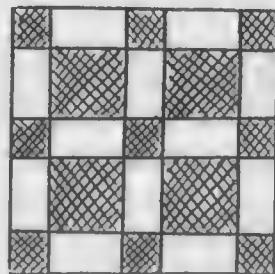

Patterns based on three inch block, no seam allowance given.

Red dots mark books for beginners

By Sydney E. Wood,
Children's Librarian

If you begin to see "red dots" before your eyes in the Children's Department of the St. Albert Public Library, then you have probably discovered our new "I Can Read It Myself" section. Occupying one complete shelving unit in our Book Nook, 10 shelves in all, this section contains those books suitable for the "beginner reader" - usually children in grades one and two. With easy-to-read vocabularies, large clear type and interesting illustrations, these books provide a "transitional stage" between the "picture books" and the "more print than picture" books. A bright red dot on the spine of a book distinguishes it as an "I Can Read It Myself" book.

Some of my favourites in this section are:

The Velveteen Rabbit by Margery Williams is a marvellous tale of nursery magic filled with wonder and imagination. It is the simple story of a toy rabbit's wish to become real. "What is REAL?" the Velveteen Rabbit asked one day. "Real isn't how you are made," replied the Skin Horse, one of Rabbit's very old and wise friends. "It's a thing that happens to you. When a child loves you for a long, long time, not just to play with, but REALLY loves you, then you become Real..." The illustrations are gentle and complement this classic tale of the Velveteen Rabbit's adventures and magical transformation.

The Mysterious Tadpole by Steven Kellogg is the delightfully humorous story of a tadpole who didn't quite grow into a frog. When "Alphonse," the tadpole becomes too large for the kitchen sink, he is moved to the bathtub -- but where he goes from there is both an amusing and imaginative tale. The drawings are precious and "Alphonse" is one lovable, laughable character.

Me Day by Joan M. Lexau is a sensitive story of a young boy's reaction to his parent's divorce on a very special day - his birthday. Ms. Lexau writes with feeling and insight about Rafer's exhilaration that his birthday has finally arrived, his growing disappointment when he doesn't hear from his father, and finally his joy in receiving the best birthday surprise ever. The difficulties that a child may experience in a broken home on a special day are skillfully written and Robert Weaver's drawings clearly reflect Rafer's shifting moods.

The Strange Dreams of Rover Jones by Richard Armour is an amusing, whimsical book that will entertain both parents and children alike. Poor Rover is an incorrigible puppy who is sent to bed for his mischief and proceeds to have the most hilarious dreams. Rover's dreams conveniently reverse the role of master and dog leading to many witty and remarkable adventures. The illustrations are both clever and satirical, enhancing the lilt of the story.

Owl At Home by Arnold Lobel is a favourite at bedtime. Belonging to the "I Can Read" series, it contains a basic vocabulary, large, easy-to-follow print and a simple yet endearing story. Owl is amazingly naive and in each chapter manages to get into trouble: Inviting Winter into his home proves to be a bit chilly; mistaking his feet for strange bumps in the bed scare poor Owl, and trying to be both upstairs and downstairs at the same time presents him with a dilemma. Owl's eccentric behaviour will delight all children while at the same time encouraging them to read!

Newman College celebrates birthday

Newman Theological College will be 10 years old in March, 1979. A number of activities are being planned to celebrate this special event.

Sunday, March 18, will mark the formation of an alumni association. Former graduates of the college will participate in a liturgy which will be followed by an inaugural meeting and banquet.

Archbishop Anthony Jordan whose vision and leadership resulted in the incorporation of Newman Theological College in 1969, will preside at a liturgy on Tuesday morning and will present a paper on John Henry Cardinal Newman to the faculty and students.

Father Camille Dozois, a faculty member of Newman College for many years, will address the Newman community and friends of the college on Wednesday evening, March 21. His presentation will focus on a particular teaching of Cardinal Newman. A reception will follow Father Dozois' address.

During the past 10 years Newman Theological College has made a significant impact on the Church in Western Canada. Many former students and supporters of the college reside in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, as well as Alberta. It is expected that a large number of them will be present at the anniversary celebrations.

St. Albert junior ladies rink to Alberta finals

The Jackie Anderson rink, curling out of St. Albert Curling Club, won the Edmonton Zone berth into the Northern Alberta Ladies Curling Association junior girls district playdowns, to be held February 9-11 at the Jasper Place Club.

The Anderson rink, with Gwen Buchanan at third, Diane Gerdes at second and Janet McKenzie at lead, defeated the Crestwood's Cathy Wilson rink in one of the A event qualifying games at the Derrick.

It will be the second time for Jackie in the Alberta finals, as last year she curled as a third on the Joanne Tainsh rink that also made it to the finals.

The Anderson rink is coached under the watchful eye of St. Albert and world curling great Hec Gervais.

JACKIE ANDERSON

Wm. D Cuts school wins Journal race

By Marty O'Kell

William D. Cuts School, one of three St. Albert schools that made it to the finals at the Edmonton Journal International Indoor Games Saturday, won their race in the elementary boys 8 x one lap relay event.

The race included another St. Albert eight man crew,

Vital Grandin.

Cuts came through with a winning time of 2:03.92, followed closely behind by Braemar School of Edmonton, who were about one quarter of a second off the pace. Vital Grandin placed fourth in the race, with a time of 2:07.20.

The third St. Albert school in the meet, V.J. Maloney, ended up in third spot in the junior high boys relay, with a time of 2:37.44.

Members of the W.D. Cuts school team were Dave Clark, Terry Olson, Andy Barnett, Lorne Forster, Grant Davidson, Tony Lewis and Steve Cosens. The Vital Grandin relay team members were Leigh Jurassa, Cameron Magosse, Curt Gooson, Pat Fullam, Shawn Cronin, David Mattice, Robert Dollovoet, and Matthew Peskew. The V.J. Maloney members were Darren Jurassa, Gideon Bellerose, Dave Hoffart, Ray Lavallee, Steve Zielinski, Marty Hoffart, Keith Mueller, Rick Gray and Pat McCann.

Two other St. Albert athletes were competing in the Games, Sean Kehoe and Sue Bell. Both are students at the U of A, and Sue runs out of the Edmonton Olympic Club as well. Sean is a member of the Golden Bears Football team, playing in the offensive backfield.

good deal of speed down the track. Sean's time was a respectable 6.12, which is good, considering he ran against the so-called "fastest man in the world," Steve Williams of Oakland, California. Williams time was 5.86.

Sue Bell did very well, running a second in the womens 400 meter open. Her time of 56.03 wasn't far behind the winner, Evelyn Ashford of the U.S. Ashford's time was 55.83. Sue actually was the winner of the race, as Ashford, who was on the U.S. Olympic team, was filling in an empty lane to make the race more interesting.

The Canadian Indoor record for the event is held by Edmonton's Brenda Walsh, who ran it back in 1974 in a time of 54.10.

Hunter wins St Albert Closed Spiel

In the annual St. Albert Ladies Closed Curling Bonspiel, Anita Hunter's rink came out on top with a victory over the Ida Heyden crew to win the "A" event.

In the "B" event, Nancy Whalen downed Vera Neveu, and Cecile Como overcame the Betty Fenton foursome to take the "C" event.

The spiel is closed to rinks that curl out of the St. Albert Club, with 32 rinks taking to the sheets last Monday. The finals were played Wednesday afternoon.

LEADER OF THE PACK

W.D. Cuts' Terry Olsen takes a commanding lead on the rest of the relay field thanks to the fast start of Dave Clarke. Cuts won the Journal Indoor Track event with another St. Albert school, Vital Grandin (far left) finishing fourth. Finishing number four isn't bad either, considering all the schools entered from the Edmonton area. In the photo, Vital Grandin's Leigh Jurassa is preparing to pass the baton to Cameron Magosse.

Eight Ender

IT'S AMAZING!

The proud owners of the eight-ender scored last Friday morning at the St. Albert Curling Club pose in front of six of the eight rocks that made it into the house. Left to right: Ellen Hodgins (skip), Kathy Tennant, Joanne Berezan and Leann Fee. An eight-ender is more rare than a hole-in-one in golf, so the ladies are very happy about the whole deal.

Saints gain revenge on south road trip

St. Albert Junior Saints Coach Doug Messier was extremely pleased with the team's performance during their weekend trip to southern Alberta as they came up with tremendous games in beating Calgary Canucks 8-2 Saturday and then edged the Taber Golden Suns 4-3 Sunday afternoon.

It was certainly a far cry from their performance in the same spots last weekend when they were humiliated 9-0 by the Canucks and then took it on the chin by an 8-5 score to the Suns.

Goaltending was much improved as young Brian Ford came up with two superb performances kicking out 37 shots against the high scoring Canucks and then blocked 39 drives Sunday in Taber. Ford has now won 15 games and lost only six and has an excellent 4.08 goals against average, which ranks with the best in the league.

Saints will be at home tonight against the Sherwood Park Crusaders who lost a pair of games to the Saints last week by scores of 5-3 and 8-5.

St. Albert will make their final journey of the regular season to the south this weekend with games in Calgary as they take on the Canucks Saturday and then the Chinooks on Sunday.

The pair of weekend victories moved the Saints into sole possession of third spot in the seven-team Alberta Junior "A" Hockey League with 60 points on 30 wins and 16 losses in 46 starts. Fort Saskatchewan Traders have also played 46 games and are four points up on St. Albert and six behind league leading Calgary Canucks, who have played 48 games.

Taber Golden Suns dropped to fourth spot with 58 points and have a 22 point lead on Calgary Chinooks. Red Deer Rustlers hold down sixth and possibly last play-off spot with 28 points while Sherwood Park Crusaders are deep in the league basement with only eight wins in 47 starts.

Saturday's games in the A.J.H.L. saw Taber clobber the Crusaders 8-3 while Fort Saskatchewan beat Red Deer Rustlers 5-2. Sunday's games saw the Canucks defeat Red Deer 7-4 and the Crusaders win by the same score over the Chinooks.

period, 14 in the second and 12 more in the third. Saints also took five penalties in a row and were two men short on two occasions, although Ford came through to stop them all.

The first period saw each club score with the man advantage as Magnan opened the scoring at 3:20 only to have Mel Hewit reply with a powerplay goal at 9:49. Saints dominated the second period scoring four unanswered goals including the winner by Dachyshyn.

Sunday's game in Taber saw the Saints take a 2-0 first period lead on goals by Dave Inch and Claude Bara, plus a disallowed goal by Ken Solheim that went in and out so fast on a slapshot the goal judge didn't even see.

BRIAN FORD

Taber scored the only goal of the middle period with Dean Kress beating Ford on a rebound midway through the period.

Golden Suns took advantage of a couple of defensive mistakes by the Saints early in the period and came up with a pair of goals as Brad Owen and Will McInnis scored before five minutes had gone by.

Inch scored his second of the game to tie the score at 13:48. Ken Solheim, with his 35th of the season at 18:30, gave the Saints a well deserved win and a big two points in the standings.

Ford was very sharp in goal stopping 39 shots while the Saints managed 30 at Murray Morton in the Golden Suns net.

Referee Ted Woolfrey had a relatively quiet night calling only seven minor penalties including a five minute major to Norm Flynn of Taber.

DEAN DACHYSHYN

Dean Dachyshyn led the Saints Saturday night in their win over the Canucks coming up with his first hat trick of the season giving him 28 for the year.

Saints leading scorer Ken Solheim scored his 33rd and 34th of the year, while singles went to Mark Magnan (9th) Pat Poulin (3rd) and Troy Murray with his 26th.

Ford was kept very busy stopping 11 shots in the first

No Refs: CKST loses

The CKST Angels midget B squad were in Barrhead on Saturday, taking a 7-3 loss, despite the fact that there were no official referees working the game.

Two Barrhead youths, one of them a Barrhead midget player, were asked to work the game; and the officiating, to say the least, was suspect as a result.

There is a possibility the game might be protested.

Scoring for the Angels were Doug McCarthy, Jamie Sander, Don Trembath and Dave MacDougall. Getting assists were Murray Pennington, Greg Collins, Jason Swist and Joe Ainsley.

The Angels were planning on going to a tournament in Drumheller, but the playoff picture will see games conflicting with the southern tourney, so that trip has been cancelled.

The CKST Angels would like to thank Murray Klem of Wash-a-matic Appliance and Television for donating name bars for both sets of sweaters. They look great.

Our praise and congratulations go out to 16 of our skaters for skating so well last Saturday, February 3 at South Side Arena. They did so well that St. Albert was given an all-round third!

The Indoor Games also featured two world indoor records, although one may not be recognized.

Men's 50 meter hurdle sensation Renaldo Nehemiah of the U.S. broke his own world record in the finals of the event with an amazing time of 6.36 seconds.

Pole vaulter Dan Ripley of

Soccer Peewees and Midgets to try out

Soccer try-outs will begin for the St. Albert Hercules Pee wee Select team beginning Monday. The trials are at Father Jan School from 6:30 till 8 p.m. beginning February 12. There will be only three trial days, as there is a gym shortage in the city. The other two trials will be the following Mondays. For

Los Angeles set a new indoor record of 5.63 meters, or 18' 5 1/4 inches. The record may not hold as a member of the Amateur Athletic Union who was present will recommend to the AAU that the record be unaccepted. The official contends that the mounts that hold the crossbar up were too flexible, keeping the bar up, even when hit. The actual jump in question is not the record breaking vault, but one made earlier in the event by Ripley. It was Ripley's third jump at the height of 5.50 meters when the bar should have come down but didn't.

The meet was attended by a little more than 10,000 people, and from the sounds of the accolades that were given forth, the spectators knew who they were cheering for. A well informed crowd to say the least.

I would predict that there will be more Journal Indoor Games in the future, which is a good sign for the young Canadian athlete.

more information call Herman at 459-8233.

For the Midget Rangers Select team, trials will begin Tuesday, February 13, also at Father Jan. The times of the trials, to be held on the following Tuesdays as well, is from 8:15 till 10 p.m. For more information call Dieter at 939-3148.

Marty O'Kell
On Sports

This is my second column of the week. The first one I wrote can go some other time.

I decided to do this one because some real neat things have happened over the past few days that should get some attention before it's stale.

Numero uno...the Edmonton Journal International Indoor Games on Saturday were outstanding. Despite the fact that it wasn't on schedule, I was thoroughly entertained by it all. The Pole Vault event, won by Dan Ripley of California, was exciting as all...heck. Renaldo Nehemiah of Maryland broke another world record...his own I might add.

But the thing that really excited me for a while was the school relay races.

Three St. Albert schools, W.D. Cuts, Vital Grandin and V.L.J. Maloney made it to the finals at the event. They ran great. All schools showed a lot of heart, even when someone fell down, or dropped the baton. The crowd was really behind them. It was noisy in the Edmonton...er sorry, the Northlands Coliseum.

It made me think (no, it's not the first time) that Canada can really do something in the world of track and field. Just look at Diane Jones Konihowski. She's a real world class competitor.

There MUST be some others around. Like St. Albert's Sue Bell and Sean Kehoe.

One place we have to start is at the grass roots level. Right at the schools. Promote the idea of track all to...heck.

It's a good thing St. Albert will get a decent track for the Alberta Summer Games. I'm sure it will come in handy in getting kids interested in the sport. If all the phys-ed teachers in St. Albert get together, they can organize some kind of competitive program, and that might lead to a St. Albert resident running in the 1992 Olympic Games, wherever they may be.

Think about it!

Of course this week the Challenge Cup series begins, featuring the NHL All-Stars against the Soviet National team.

Some people have insisted that I venture a guess at who's going to take the three-game series.

So here goes ... The NHL will win two of the three games. After all, the Russians aren't hard to beat anymore. They surpassed us once, but we have taken the lead again. (We, means North Americans) Luigi won't like that guess.

On the local hockey scene ... the Nu-West Canadians are taking off to Quebec City at Saturday noon. They'll be participating in the pee wee tournament there, a BIGGY by any standard. Good luck kids, and bring back a trophy.

CKST's "Voice of the St. Albert Junior Saints," Al Coates is back in excellent form again in his play-by-play. Catch him one night. He can even make a funeral sound exciting.

Till next week ...

Ron Hodgson Pontiacs back on right track

You wouldn't call it one of their better games, but the Ron Hodgson Pontiacs came through on the right end of a 9-4 score against the Ardrossan Lions Monday night at the Perron arena.

The scramble affair was the only action last week for St. Albert in the Hwy. 14

Juvenile "A" schedule. John Provencal led the way in the goal department with his first hat trick of the season to go along with a top notch hustling performance. Defenceman Bob Crawford took the biggest jump in the point parade with a five point night, including his ninth goal of the year. Keith Heyburn was close behind with one tally and three assists.

Colin Tooth gave the Pontiacs the lead in the opening minute, and Provencal's pair plus Kent Middleton's 16th of the year put the locals up 4-2 after 20 minutes.

The Lions narrowed the gap to one early in the second, but Jeff Harmon got that one back at 3:28 after some persistent forechecking by linemate Heyburn.

The visitors struck early again in the last frame, and at that point, the Ron Hodgson clan appeared to be "running out of gas." However, Crawford turned things around at the 3:54 mark when he caught the Lions netminder minus his lumber, and fired one low to the corner. Less than a minute later, Harmon stretched the lead to 7-4 tucking one away after some hot action around the Lions cage. Heyburn and Provencal ended the scoring midway through the period to send coaches Harmon and Sage home feeling a bit happier than Roger Neilson of the Toronto Maple Leafs after their weekend.

St. Albert picked up nine of 12 minor penalties in the game which the officials kept well under control throughout.

The Pontiacs visit Enoch tonight and travel to Sherwood Park on Monday for another clash with the Hwy. 14 league leaders.

PONTIAC PASSES: It is probably due time we took our "hats off" to a few of the behind-the-scenes workers who help keep the Pontiacs machine rolling. Jack Greening and his partner Mac Hancock have handled most of the official scorekeeping and P.A. system this season, and they are only second to their counterparts in the Montreal Forum (because they can't speak French). Tom Parayko, Stan Harkness and Ben Tooth have all gratefully assisted at one time or another. All these helpers say their jobs are relaxing; nobody is apt to want their important roles, and besides that, you can't get fired when you haven't been hired ... You wouldn't get many arguments if you picked Provencal, Heyburn and Crawford as the three stars in the Monday game. Colin Parayko looked impressive after having missed three games while Scott Gannon guarding the twine came up with several good saves ... Murray Riddell missed the game due to U of A commitments ... As this Gazette issue finds its way into the Hancock residence in Calgary, may all your chinooks be warm ones. We don't want Brad to "cool off" for the playoffs. It has been colder here than a mother-in-law's kiss.

The St. Albert Nu-West Canadians will be flying east to Quebec City on Saturday via one of Air Canada's red and white birds. The Canadians will be participating in the "Quebec 20th International Peewee Hockey Tournament," and the thanks has to go to the residents of St. Albert.

The team has been raising money over the past year through bottle and paper drives, raffles, and the sale of the Hockey Yearbook programs. The residents of the city have been quite good to the boys, and as a result, the Canadians have collected an amazing $17,000.

The trip itself to Quebec will run around the $10,000 mark. The extra bucks the boys collected will go back into the Kinsmen minor hockey system.

The tournament is a SINGLE knockout event, so there are no second chances. There is, however, a separate tournament for the losers in the first and second round of the big tourney. That consolation event takes place a few miles from Quebec City in a town called Bernieres-St-Redempteur.

In the Quebec City bash, teams will come from many of the highly populated areas in the east, including some from the States. Some of the opposition the Canadians might be up against comes from Detroit, Chicago and Boston. So as you can see, this is Canada's biggest peewee tournament. Two top Toronto teams, the Shoppys and Wexford, (part of the Toronto Marlboro chain) are also entered in the event.

The tourney will take place in the Quebec Colisee, which seats about 11,000 fans. In most cases, the arena is packed for the games of this tournament.

The Quebec peewee tournament, which is run in conjunction with the annual Winter Carnival, began back in 1960. The event is run totally by volunteers, and in the 19 years of existence, the tourney has turned over $360,000 to youth groups in the Quebec area.

The Nu-West Canadians are undefeated this year, winning 19 games and tying one. The game in which they tied was probably because only EIGHT players managed to make it to the contest. That's the sign of a great team.

Two years ago the Canadians were in the Quebec tournament, but lost their first game.

This year, after playing together for almost two years now, the team is quite optimistic it can do much better.

Maybe even a Championship Trophy can be brought home.

Carma's win tournament at Waskatenau

Sunday, Carma's St. Albert Bantams and their fans travelled to Waskatenau for a one-day tournament. Car-

ma's came out determined to win after losing a league game the night before to Westlock.

Within the first five minutes, St. Albert potted three tidy goals, two for Tony Rouault assisted by Erin Oor and one by Oor assisted by John Lenz and Robert Walsh. Carma finished off the first period with a beautiful short-handed breakaway goal by Mike Tessier.

He excited the fans in the second and third periods too, pulling off the same short-handed play to collect his hat trick. Some hat trick! John Findlay helped out on Tessier's second period goal but the other two were unassisted. Rouault scored unassisted in the second and Barrhead connected for two.

In the third period, with the score 7-2 in favor of St. Albert, Barrhead launched an attack which resulted in four quick goals midway through the period. Action was hot and heavy until 19:08 when Carma's set-up a beautiful passing play in front of Barrhead's net. The goalie was at John Lenz' mercy as he popped it in, ably assisted by Oor and John Holden.

Then came the long wait until the final game with Medley (Cold Lake). After cooling their heels for seven hours, Carma finally hit the ice again at 7:30 p.m. Carma now had their finest hour - or two, if you like as the boys really put it all together and came up with a super team effort and a very exciting hockey game.

After a scoreless first period, St. Albert counted twice in the second on two nice point drives by Tessier from Mike Wells and by Walsh unassisted. Even though they were up by two goals, St. Albert never let up and kept driving for Medley's net. Halfway through period three, Chris Lane's shutout was spoiled by Medley's rush with the puck in the net off a rebound shot.

Lane had a good steady game as did all the Carma's as they skated hard, checked and passed well. Captain Oor put the game on ice late in the third period as he picked the corner on a nice set-up by Lenz. The game ended with a score of 3-1 for St. Albert and the winners trophy in the arms of the Carma's.

It couldn't have happened to a nicer bunch of guys.

Shaver A's do well on weekend

On Friday, February 2, the Dairy Queen Crusaders played an exhibition game against Edmonton's Thorncliff Mini-Mites in Parkland arena. St. Albert was out-hustled quite badly in this one and lost by a score of 5-1. The only scoring play for St. Albert was Wesley Webber from Kevin Gullekson on a fine breakaway pass. Jamie McLennan again played well in goal as Jamie was very hot with the glove hand.

Saturday, however, St. Albert showed it could hustle as well, as the Crusaders defeated Sherwood Park 6-0. The scoring went as follows: Webber from Derek Van Lersberghe and Cameron Nuttall; Van Lersberghe from Webber and Willie Failing; Webber from Van Lersberghe; Webber from Van Lersberghe; Nuttall from Trevor Robertson and finally Gullekson from Robertson. Jamie McLennan, in earning the shutout, was not tested that severely, however, he did make two extremely good saves to preserve the shutout.

Sunday, February 4, Shaver A league action again resumed at Akinsdale arena. At 6:00 a.m. the Lions defeated the Tankers by a score of 7-1. 7:15 saw the Crusaders down the Cougars in a close hard-hitting game 4-2. Goal scorers for the Dairy Queen Crusaders in this exciting game were Webber from Gullekson, Van Lersberghe from Webber and Gullekson, Robertson from Terry Carwell and Shane Fildes and Webber unassisted. Special mention should be given to Wes Webber who played three strong games on the weekend and played particularly well against the Cougars.

The next league action in Shaver A goes this Saturday as the Cougars play the Lions at 2:45 p.m. The Tankers and the Crusaders then meet at 4:00. Both games are at Akinsdale. Sunday, February 11, the Cougars meet the Tankers at 9:45 a.m. While immediately after the Crusaders play the Lions at 11 a.m. The two games once again are at Akinsdale.

See you there!

Morinville Vipers take a split

The Morinville Peeewe BB Vipers lost a heartbreaker Saturday against the St. Albert RMC Saints by a close 2-1 score. Sunday, the Vipers were pitted against the Westlock Copper Crusaders, and the Vipers came away with a well deserved 7-2 victory.

The Morinville club is now tied in second spot in their league.

Morinville pointgetters on the weekend were Mark Carlton with four points, Andy Hittinger with four, Curtis Purdue and Murray Siesleski with three each, Lyle Weisgerber and Sheldon Bland with two each, and Wayne Dahl came up with a single point.

The Vipers final league game goes this Sunday in Spruce Grove.

Willowbrook Saints Peewees play in Onoway

Last Saturday and Sunday, the Peewee B Willowbrook Saints attempted to compete in both the Onoway Invitational Tournament and their regular league schedule. With much rushing and frantic driving by parents, the team managed to be at all games on time; but unfortunately managed only one league win - losing both games in the Onoway Tournament and one league game.

In the first game, the Saints met the Rich Valley peewees and came out flying. They ended the first period up 1-0 on a great two-way effort by Frank Tosto and Todd Hicks. In the second period, Rich Valley tied it up, and in the third added two goals to end the game 3-1. Both teams played well, but seemed unnerved by the 'tight' officiating and the 17 minor penalties called.

On Sunday, St. Albert faced Warburg in their second game of the tournament, and played their finest of the season, in spite of an 8-4 loss. The hometown boys opened up with Frank Tosto connecting on a pass from John Fechter at the 3 minute mark of the first period. With excellent end to end play in the second, it took the Warburg Peewees 12 minutes to tie it up, and the period ended 1-1.

The third period saw an amazing surge by both teams offensively, with 10 goals scored. St. Albert started the blitz on a beautiful play by Mark Sanche, with John Joubert putting it away. Warburg scored twice in 23 seconds to go ahead by one, and then less than a minute later, Frank Tosto tied it again on an unassisted goal. Warburg stormed back with three fast goals in less than two minutes, to make it 6-3. The Saints gamely tried to get back in control, and at 9:08 scored again with Mike Reidy getting the marker on a great set-up by Mark Sanche. Warburg proved too strong, however, and scored twice more to end the game up four goals.

The Saints goalie, Ken Scharf, was awarded the M.V.P. trophy for the St. Albert team.

No league but Panthers still trying

The Pro Western Panthers Juvenile B hockey club found themselves without a league last month, but that's not stopping them from playing their super exciting brand of hockey.

The league, which originally consisted of St. Albert, Westlock, Calahoo and Spruce Grove, lost the Calahoo entry before Christmas, and then a few weeks ago the Grove team dropped out. The league officially folded at that point, but the two teams left, St. Albert and Westlock, decided to begin right away with the playoffs.

The playoff structure is a best of five games series, with four games having been played already. Westlock took the first two games, then the Panthers came storming back with identical 7 - 5 wins, the last one in overtime.

The next and final game in the series has yet to be announced.

The Panthers ended the regular season on top of the league, and are truly a credit to the St. Albert sports scene, providing some of the best hockey action in town. The attendance proves that, as the Panthers have lately been averaging from 150 to 200 fans per game.

The Panthers will be starting in the Provincial playoffs in March.

Public relations - a key to the Games

THIS IS A FIRST IN A SERIES OF STORIES CONCERNING THE BACKGROUND OF STAGING THE ALBERTA SUMMER GAMES. THESE STORIES WILL BE EASILY IDENTIFIED BY THE GAMES LOGO.

By Marty O'Kell

One of the more logical places to start when doing background stories on the Alberta Summer Games (to be hosted by St. Albert in August) is the promotional and public relations end of it.

Local resident Jerry Manegre is in charge of Games Promotions, and is definitely a wise choice for the position.

Mr. Manegre has been a broadcaster for 13 years, including a stint as assistant news director at CJCA radio in Edmonton. He was appointed as the Commonwealth Games Media Manager for the Jubilee Auditorium and the Athletes Village during the big 1978 event, and is currently employed by Northwestern Utilities as their public relations man.

Behind Jerry there is a crew that will be doing a lot of footwork, research and background work in preparation for the Games.

This group is the Advertising and Public Relations second year class at Grant MacEwan Community College.

Mr. Manegre approached another local resident, Wally West, who runs a PR agency in our city, and who also happens to be the teacher of the course at Grant MacEwan, to help out with the PR work. Wally said he would, providing his class could become heavily involved in the proceedings.

This came to be, and now the 17 member class is busy with this project, under the watchful eyes of Wally West.

Every Monday morning the students get together for an informal gathering to discuss what has been done over the past week, and what further plans will be made.

The class is divided into five groups, each one looking after a certain aspect of the operations involved in the public relations game.

One group, the PR group, is under Mr. West, and they have the task of setting up a speakers bureau. The bureau will consist of five members of the St. Albert Games Board, and they will go around the Greater Edmonton area speaking to people about the upcoming Games. The students group will line up the engagements for the speakers bureau, and will also organize, through the Toastmasters clubs, speaking engagements throughout the Province.

This group will make up press releases, and will pass them on to one of the other groups who will make sure they get to their proper destinations.

The PR group will organize mail displays, route marking and decorations for the Games.

Group number two, the Media department, will deal with TV Radio and Newspaper types.

The media group will compile background material, biographies and information on sporting events. They will set up a communications network across the province, making sure all information gets to the media people around Alberta.

Transportation of the media people also comes under the responsibilities of the students, as well as the setting up of the Games headquarters in the St. Albert Inn, and media headquarters at the Edmonton Inn.

This group will be working under Hal Pawson of Edmonton, who is the Games Media Services co-ordinator.

The third group of students is working with Glen Carlton of Baker Lovick, an advertising company. The group will be looking after the commemorative program. The program will be 36 pages long, and will probably feature a four colour front cover. Inside the program there will be messages from politicians and important people associated with the Games, background of sports, various other items, and of course advertising.

Group four, the creative group, is working with Tom Doerkson of Concept Associates. The group will develop a cover for the program, various forms of artwork for different uses, and signs and posters. The mall display will also use some of the talent in this group.

The final group of three students will be working with Jerry Manegre, helping him out with some of his heavy tasks.

JERRY MANEGRE

The course ends in March, but some of the class will continue on in the project where needed. Some office space has been made available to the class in St. Albert's Percy Page Centre, and though the class is in school much of the time, there will be some matters that will be more easily handled out of the local office.

It's a big job for these students, and a good experience, but they're quite sure they can do it, and do it well. After all, they are an important part in the Alberta Summer Games machine.

NOW LET'S GET THIS STRAIGHT

RMC Saints split in League play

Last week saw the RMC Saints of the Sturgeon Pembina Peewee BB League win one at home and lose one on the road. Their loss came on Thursday evening in Spruce Grove against the league leaders. The Saints came back on Saturday night to knock off the second place Morinville Vipers.

SPRUCE GROVE SLAM THE SAINTS

On Thursday evening in the Grove the Saints were down 4-1 early and never recovered. The Grove led 8-2 after two periods and the Saints tried a belated comeback in the third only to fall short. The final score read 8-5 for Spruce Grove.

One of the few bright spots for the Saints was their goaltending as Todd Cunningham turned away 49 shots during the game. Goalscorers for the Saints were Mike Holzer with two while Billy Mitchell, Trent Rees and Eric Olson each notched a single. Assists went to Wilf Keiser and Don Bremeault with a pair each while single assists went to Mitchell, Rees and Olson.

RMC EDGE MORINVILLE

On Saturday evening at Perron Street the Saints squeezed by second place Morinville Vipers by a 2-1 score. The game Saturday was highlighted by standout goaltending in the person of Todd Shaw in the Saints net. He faced 16 shots in the first period and only allowed one to get by him. The goal that got by him was deflected by one of his own defensemen. The Saints were able to muster only three shots on Morinville during the first period and came away with one goal.

GORD TREMBATH
Fires winner against Morinville

The Saints first goal came off the stick of Darryl Ethier after he was set up by Trent Rees in front of the Morinville net. This tied up the game near the end of the first period.

The only goal of the second period proved to be the winner for RMC. The goal was scored by Gord Trembath from a scramble in front of the Morinville net. Greg Amyotte and Stan Black drew assists on the winning goal.

The third period was scoreless as the Saints tried to protect their one goal lead. They accomplished this by tremendous forechecking in the Morinville zone and the leaders of the forechecking crew were Greg Amyotte,

GREG AMYOTTE
Pesky forechecker

Mike Holzer and Trent Rees. In the Saints own end of the rink defensemen, David Laplante broke up numerous Morinville scoring chances and cleared the puck well.

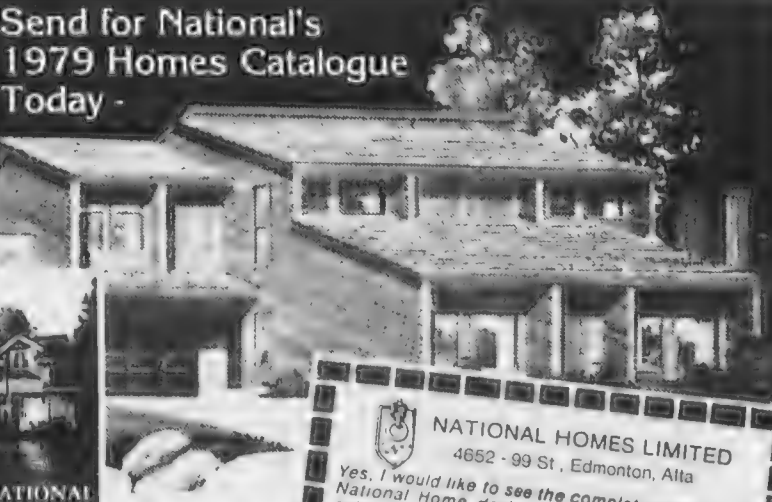

DAVID LAPLANTE
Steadies RMC Defence

The Saints next league action will be next Saturday night at the Perron Street Arena when they face the league leading Spruce Grove team at 7 p.m.

Nu-West Canadians undefeated in regular season play

The Nu-West Canadians of the North Central Alberta Peewee "A" Hockey League completed their regular season with a pair of wins. On February 1, the Canadians outplayed the Fort Saskatchewan A & W Nickel Kings at the Akinsdale Arena and came away with a 6-3 win and on February 3, the Canadians hammered the Strathcona Warriors 11-5 in a chippy and drawnout game played in Fultonvale Arena.

In Thursday's game Emanuel Viveiros led the scoring with a hat trick and one assist. Todd Carnelley got two goals and two assists. Dean Bosch got one goal. Scott Rusnak had a productive evening with two assists while Casey Wheatley, Dave Findlay and Ole Graversen all got one assist. Fort Saskatchewan A & W Nickel Kings have proven to be the team that has improved the most of the Canadians opposition in their regular league. As of late they have played some very good hockey. Their pointgetters were as follows: D. Clarke - 2 goals, R. Hankey - 1 goal, S. Northrup, D. Mokosak and B. Cox each got one assist. A total of 10 penalties were handed out. Seven to the Canadians and three to the Nickel Kings.

EMANUEL VIVEIROS
EMANUEL VIVEIROS
SCORES HIS 50th GOAL

Saturday afternoon the Canadians travelled to Fultonvale and played the Strathcona Warriors for the last game of the regular season in an, at times, chippy and penalty filled game. The Canadians outplayed the Warriors through most of the game and only through good goaltending by the Warrior's S. Smith and some questioned refereeing did Warriors get away with an 11-5 loss.

Three of the Warriors goals were scored when the Canadians had one or two players in the penalty box. The Canadians played an excellent game but at times they became very frustrated as it seemed they could hardly touch the puck without a whistle. A total of 21 minor and two major penalties were handed out. Thirteen to the Canadians, 10 to the Warriors. The two majors both went to the Canadians. Emanuel Viveiros scored four goals and had one assist. Viveiros, who plays defence, had the afternoon highlighted when with 19 seconds left on the clock, scored his fourth goal of the game and his 50th of the regular season. Other pointgetters were Todd Carnelley with one goal and five assists. Scott Rusnak and Todd Ewen both got two goals and one assist. Casey Wheatley came up with a one goal and one assist effort. Ole Graversen got a goal. Dean Bosch, Fraser Watt, Dave Findlay and Bobby Havens all got an assist.

The Nu-West Canadians have now completed their regular season league play and came through undefeated with 19 wins and one tie. The Canadians will have a break before the league playoff and will be off to Quebec City, leaving February 10 and returning February 18. The Quebec City tournament is an International Peewee tournament held yearly during the Quebec Winter Carnival. Parents and fans wish the boys good luck in Quebec. See elsewhere on details of Quebec City tournament.

In preparation for the Quebec trip the Canadians played an exhibition game against the Fort Saskatchewan A & W Nickel Kings in Akinsdale Arena Sunday night and came away with a 6-1 win.

The game saw some well executed plays from both teams and was beneficial to all involved. Coach Ed Rusnak enjoyed the game from the stands and thereby had a chance to see the boys in action from a different angle. Darrell Carnelley, assistant coach and Mel Bosch, team manager were on the bench running the team.

The scoring went as follows: Todd Carnelley got two goals, Scott Rusnak got one goal and one assist. Emanuel Viveiros, Dave Findlay and Kent Lefebvre each got one goal. Ron Couture and Bobby Havens each earned one assist.

Pointgetters for the Nickel Kings were D. Clarke with one goal and R. Shudra with one assist.

Morinville IGA's battle to a deadlock

Last Wednesday, the Morinville IGA Bantams hosted Riviere Qui Barre in an exhibition encounter, with the IGA's outclassing the visitors 9-1.

The first and second periods were dominated by Morinville. At 10:25 Henri Labonte scored from Brad Hooper and Dwight Van Brabant. Van Brabant made it 2-0 at the 6:53 mark, with Marshall Lalonde and Labonte assisting. Michael Poworznicz ended the first period scoring from Andy Boissosnault and Murray Johnson.

In the middle period, Robbie Hoffman connected with Poworznicz and Jim Turner adding helpers. Brent Lewis and Chris Bokenfohr set up Paul Schafers at the 7:25 mark. With 48 seconds left in the frame, Boissosnault scored from Poworznicz and Turner.

Riviere Qui Barre opened up the last stanza scoring, but Van Brabant made it 7-1 a minute later, with Lalonde getting an assist. Boissosnault and Turner rounded out the Morinville scoring, with the assists on the two goals going to Johnson, Van Brabant and Poworznicz.

Morinville took eight of 12 minors called.

On Saturday, a league game took place in Morinville between the IGA's and Sherwood Park, ending in a 2-2 tie.

The Park opened up first in the starting period, but Lewis tied it up shortly after.

Labonte earned an assist.

The second periods only goal came from Sherwood

Park, and the only third period marker came from IGA's Lewis, assisted by Dave Kegler.

Each team received five minor penalties.

Sturgeon Valley Hockey League nearing playoff time

The eight-team Sturgeon Valley Senior Hockey League regular season is rapidly coming to a close with the last series of games to be played Sunday, February 18.

Gibbons Marlowes, defending champions, need only two wins in their last four games to clinch first place while Legal Canadiens, Namao Sailcats, Calahoo Scorpions and Morinville Frontiersman all have a shot at second place.

Only six teams will be eligible for the playoffs and it appears that Bon Accord Wildcats and Alexander Braves will not make them.

Marlowes have scored the most goals with 190 and their goaltenders have allowed the least at 93.

Namao's Les Crozier has a four point lead in the scoring race over veteran Leo Provencal from Legal who has 67 points.

Tom Sokolowski from Redwater has the most goals with 36, while Provencal leads with 39 assists.

Billy Morris of Namao, who previously played pro with the Edmonton Oilers, has only played nine league games but has scored 36 points including 20 goals.

Young Rick Provencal from Legal, who started off the season with the Sturgeon Jets in the Capital Junior Hockey League, has found the red light 28 times in only 16 games and should place high in the "Rookie of the Year" honours.

Sokolowski has to be a solid threat for the league's most gentlemanly player award as he has had no penalty minutes in 22 games. Leo Provencal is close behind with only two minutes in 22 games.

Sturgeon Jets still not on track

In games played last week, the Sturgeon Jets, playing out of Morinville, lost a 9-2 contest to Enoch on Tuesday and lost to Sherwood Park 6-3 on Wednesday.

In Tuesday's game, Roy Squires scored both goals for the Jets, with assists going to Trent Doyle and Jerry McMeckan on the first goal, and McMeckan and Bryant May on the second.

On Wednesday, Ivan Remillard scored the first goal with an assist by Roland Blackburn. Bryant May came up with the next two Jet goals. Danny Pelletier picked up two assists, while Joe Bilodeau notched a single assist.

Bon Accord Council holds adult education night

By Bob Coles

About fifty people, predominately residents of Roseglen Subdivision, herded into the Bon Accord Community Hall on Monday night to discuss with members of Village Council the pros and cons of paving their subdivision. In addition to paving information the people gained some education on taxation, road construction, grant systems, governmental procedures and drainage - in all quite a wealth of information.

The Roseglen subdivision was started about seven years ago, when it was unusual for developers to include costs such as curbs, gutters, and street paving in the cost of the home. Last summer, some of the residents asked Council to check into paving the subdivision. Council employed, what the Mayor feels, is a competent consulting engineer to research the situation. The consultant, Mr. Nelson, came up with the figure of $5.90 per front foot as the highest the cost would be. This price includes laying curbs and gutters, bringing the road to grade, six inches of soil cement and two inches of hot mix asphalt. He pointed out that with proper maintenance the pavement should last 20 years.

Council would like to see the area paved, mainly for the alleviation of drainage problems the area presently suffers. Mayor Fearnley informed the residents that this year Springer Construction would be paving roads adjacent to Roseglen, which would lower the cost for the Roseglen residents provided they paved their area at the same time.

Spotlight On Sturgeon

Some residents took exception to the Mayor's comments on drainage saying that it was a low area and water always accumulated in the northeast corner of the subdivision. The Mayor pointed out the effectiveness the pavement would have in getting rid of the water. He added that the Springer development would further alleviate the problem by the addition of storm sewer drains in the proximity of the northeast corner and the addition of a more direct dispersal route.

Many people were upset that their taxes were already as high as Edmonton's and they had no services to show for it. Now, they had the added cost of paving. Mayor Fearnley pointed out that the Village's financial position was obvious. The village doesn't have the tax base of Edmonton's having fewer people and no industry. He emphasized that the matter was in the residents' hands.

A number of alternatives were discussed, but the only real answer appears to be Council's submission. Cold mix was ruled out as it lasts only about five years and while it would be a saving at the present time, in the long run it would prove to be uneconomical. When asked if there was a chance of a grant to cover the paving, Mayor Fearnley replied that a grant was unlikely. He mentioned that every five years the provincial government provides money for street improvement, but he cautioned the group that the money would have to be used for the general good of the village, not for one subdivision. Another resident asked if staging the paving would make the cost easier to bear. Mr. Nelson remarked that this alternative was not practical as costs would continue to increase and it would be better to do it all at once.

One "gentleman" found fault with the method council used to inform the residents of the proposal. He was enlightened to the fact that the council was governed by provincial laws, which laid down the procedure.

Anyways, it is left in the hands of the residents whether they want their street paved as outlined by the Village Council or not at all. If not, there is a petition at the Village Office for that purpose. At the meeting on Monday night there was talk of circulating the petition so residents would have more access to it. 50% of the home owners must sign the paper before the 14th of this month for the petition to bear weight.

Bon Accord's Council seem to have the Village's affairs well in hand. Their public meetings always have an air of informality, which lends to a more productive meeting. As was evidenced by Monday's meeting, you can also learn an awful lot about municipal affairs by attending.

Rapeseed after rapeseed

Growing rapeseed after rapeseed on the same land is a risky business.

Even though recent newspaper articles have reported farmers successfully growing rapeseed on rape stubble, Phil Thomas, Alberta Agriculture's supervisor of oil-seed crops points out that this practice for both seeded and volunteer crops could lead to a lot of disappointment. He says "For every successful rapeseed crop grown on rape stubble there have been a large number of unsuccessful ones."

One of the things against growing rapeseed on rape stubble is that it provides an ideal environment for disease and insect buildups. There are several rapeseed diseases which do relatively little damage in the first crop, but under the right conditions can cause severe damage and yield losses in a second crop. This is because of the buildup of potential infection.

Mr. Thomas explains that a rotation using cereal crops between rapeseed crops facilitates a natural breakdown of the disease organisms and their cycles. It also breaks the cycle of certain rapeseed insects. "The rotation recommended by all research scientists is one in which rapeseed is grown only once in three or four years on the same land."

Rapeseed grown on rape stubble also allows a buildup of perennial and annual weeds which cannot be controlled with herbicides in a rape crop as is the case with cereal crops. A buildup of weeds like Canada thistle, cleavers, stinkweed and wild mustard can lead to yield losses and the possibility of lower grades.

Since rapeseed trash and stubble put little organic matter back into the soil, continuous rapeseed cropping will eventually lead to a deterioration of the soil and a loss of its structure and tilth, especially on grey-wooded soils. Such a situation increases the risk of soil erosion by the wind.

Under certain conditions the toxin in rapeseed trash and stubble severely reduces the growth and yield of the following crop. It affects growth and yields of rapeseed more seriously than the growth and yield of susceptible barley and wheat varieties. However, if the rapeseed swath is not rained on and no leaching of the toxin out of the straw occurs and the trash is evenly spread over the field, there is usually no adverse effect on the subsequent crop.

Mr. Thomas strongly advises farmers to take a very serious look at their rapeseed crop rotations and to avoid planting rapeseed on rape stubble. "While the successful growing of rapeseed on rape stubble reported by the media may sound appealing, this practice could lead to heavy financial losses" he stresses.

Namao 4H Clothing Club News

By Beth Strong

The Namao 4H Buttons and Bows Clothing Club had another of their monthly meetings January 23 at Mrs. Vera Huber's. The club is hoping to plan an exchange trip with other clubs in Newfoundland. This will mostly be paid for by the government, so each member will only have to contribute $10.00. We will also be sending a few of our members to "Selections" in Camrose. There are many trips being awarded to all over North America at Selections.

Thursday, February 16 at 7 p.m., our unit ones and the seniors will be at the Church for their public speaking. Then, on the 17th, the winner from the unit ones and the rest of the junior speakers will be speaking. Everyone is welcome to come to either one of these speak-offs.

Our next meeting will be on February 27 at Mrs. Gabby's at 7:30 sharp.

After the card games and the bingo, a delicious lunch was ready for all to partake of.

Mrs. C. Adolina Bergstreiser was honoured on the occasion of her birthday.

The afternoon slips by too fast, but all went home, resolved, these meetings are very important for all concerned. See you all next time.

Philanthropic province: municipalities' Godsend

Heads are still spinning following the announcement by Premier Lougheed of the Major Municipal Debt Reduction Program. The one billion dollars plus for the grant will come from short term cash surpluses, which the Provincial Government has acquired through the oil and gas royalty arrangements of 1973 and 1974, together with effective Federal/Provincial negotiations since that time on oil and gas pricing. This is over and above the monies of the Heritage Trust Fund.

Three-quarters of the grant money will be used to retire municipal debts issued at 8% interest charges or greater. The funds will be applied equally on the basis of $500 per person based on the official population as of June 30, 1978. All municipalities in Alberta will have a large portion of their debt dramatically reduced and those municipalities with low or nominal debt will receive unconditional grants to establish their own special municipal surplus fund for their future needs.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO MUNICIPALITIES IN THE MD

Using estimated figures, here is what it might mean to various municipalities in the MD of Sturgeon: (Remember, these are only estimations, the actual grants may differ greatly).

Morinville with a population of 2,500 would realize a grant of $1,250,000. Compared with a debt of $233,700 would leave the Town of Morinville with a surplus of just over the million dollar mark.

The Village of Bon Accord at a population of 1,100 and with a debt of $620,000 would still have debts of $70,000 outstanding.

Redwater has only two debts which would be eliminated, the pool debt of $41,000 and the fire truck debt of $34,000. With a population at 1,650, the Town of Redwater would have a surplus of $825,000.

The Town of Gibbons would alleviate their debt of $1,963,421.89 by approximately $600,000.

Bruce Carruthers passes at 75 years

By Norma Crozier
On January 31, 1979, Mr. Bruce Burns Carruthers of R.R. #4 Edmonton, Alberta passed away at the age of 75 years.

BRUCE CARRUTHERS

Bruce was born in the Excelsior district in 1903, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Carruthers. His father came from Scotland to the territory of Alberta to file on a homestead at Cardiff in 1893 moving to Excelsior in 1898 to take up farming.

Bruce also became a farmer who loved the land and farm life, he continued to live and work on the same farm until his health failed recently.

Vancouver terminal increases capacity 38%

Alberta Wheat Pool has completed a major project that will improve Canada's grain export capability. The farmer-owned Alberta Pool has constructed a modern 2.8 million bushel addition to Alberta Pool Terminal No. 1 at the West Coast. This addition gives the terminal a total capacity of 10.1 million bushels.

This new structure at Vancouver will supply an effective reserve of surge storage to the terminal operations. The Alberta Pool terminal now has the capacity to continue loading ships for up to 10 days if incoming supply is interrupted. The addition complements the terminal's unloading and shipping capacity. Alberta Pool terminal is now capable of unloading 220 - 230 rail cars in a 24-hour period.

Grain can be loaded on board ship at a rate of 455,000 bushels per 7.5 hours.

grant from the provincial government. Due to the lack of information, municipal fathers were hesitant to comment on the grant, but all commented that it was obviously favourable.

He was an avid curler, a member of the Thistle Curling Club of Edmonton. In recent years he enjoyed the Namao 60 Plus Club.

Bruce married Catherine Harrold and had two sons, Christopher and Norman. Catherine passed away in 1960 and in 1966 Bruce married Verna Smith.

He is survived by his loving wife Verna of Namao, two sons Chris and Norman both of Namao; two step-daughters Mrs. Lorna Pearce and Mrs. Mavis Harasym both of Edmonton and 11 grandchildren. Also survived by one cousin, Allen Gibson of Edmonton.

Funeral services were held on February 3 from Norwood United Church with Reverend Harold Black officiating. Soloist was Reverend Roy Chubb. Interment was at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. Pallbearers were Gordon Melick, Bud LeClair, Gary Jones, Dan Sekul, Jim Vervynck and Percy Carruthers.

Following the service dinner was served in the Namao Community Hall by ladies of the community.

TRYING TROMBONE

With the new semester only a week old its still too early for telling which instrument to which one is most suited. Lorraine Bchoiz of Namao School puts this trombone to the test.

Agriculture Minister announces new grant program

Agriculture Minister Marvin Moore announced recently a major grant program to help Alberta Agricultural Societies cover operating expenses.

Effective January 1, 1979, the program will supply grants, equal to 50 percent of the costs of utilities and insurance to a maximum of $5,000 per year, to all Class "C" and "D" Agricultural Societies in the Province.

This program follows from the major $75,000 Capital Grant Program introduced by the Provincial Government in 1971. That program resulted in a fourfold increase, from 54 to 214, in the number of active Agricultural Societies in Alberta, many of which now own and operate major multi-purpose facilities for recreational, cultural and agricultural activities.

The success of these organizations in operating their facilities has been outstanding, says Mr. Moore, however, some have encountered problems from escalating operational expenses. The new program will assist in offsetting these costs.

To obtain the new grant, an agricultural society must actually operate the facilities for which expenses are incurred.

Utility costs will include the monthly charges for water and sewer, fuel oil, propane, natural gas and electricity, but will not include the capital costs of installation or such charges as frontage tax for water and sewer.

All insurance costs will be eligible for the 50 percent grant.

Agricultural Societies must maintain monthly records plus retain copies of receipts. Receipts for the 1979 calendar year must be submitted to the Agricultural Societies Branch between January 1, 1980 and February 15, 1980.

No grants will be provided for expenses which have been covered by a project co-operation grant from the Department of Recreation, Parks and Wildlife.

Destination: Jonquiere

By Lise Houle

For the past month, the G.P. Vanier French Club, Les Papillons, have been counting the days until February 8. That's the day when 15 high school students and two chaperones board a plane at 8 a.m. and head for Jonquiere, Quebec. There, they'll meet their "twin group," and will spend the next 10 days living "a la Quebecoise." The second half of the trip will take place in the middle of March, when the group from Quebec returns to Alberta for 10 days.

This cultural exchange trip has been in the making for months now. Thanks to the government grant awarded to both groups, and the co-operation of the Thibault School Board, in addition to the personal contributions of each of the students involved, the exchange is now a reality.

The trip is exactly what its name suggests - a cultural exchange. We will be there to learn about the Quebec lifestyle: their educational system, their industries, their pastimes, their customs - their culture. Likewise, when they return to Alberta, they will experience our way of life. For example, while in Jonquiere, we will be visiting hydroelectric plants, cultural centres, and participating in banquets, recreational activities and many other activities. While in Alberta, the Quebecois students will experience our industries, a rodeo or two, and even a trip to the Rockies.

As a follow through for our half of the trip, we will prepare a slide-tape program, which will be presented to the Jonquiere students and to the general public on March 30. In addition to this, we are writing a log of events during the trip, and on return, will prepare a complete journal of our activities, experiences, and reactions.

A trip of this nature can't help but be an educational experience, since it provides a rare opportunity for students from different parts of our country to break down barriers, abolish false notions, and to exchange and share opinions, ideas, and attitudes. This is probably one of the most important objectives of the trip, "to provide longlasting memories, and to open hearts and minds to new experiences and new opportunities.

We are determined to achieve our goals and make this project a memorable one - and to get a head-start, we'll all be up bright and early (well, maybe not bright), at 5 a.m. tomorrow, to begin our trip on the right note. Aurevoir!

Local couple enjoy extensive tour

By Tillie Meyer
If you've never gone on a bus tour before, you don't know what you've missed. We (Leonard and Tillie Meyer) have just returned from a 19-day tour sponsored by the Alberta Wheat Pool. Our tour originated in Calgary with 46 passengers, plus the driver and a tour guide. As we moved along, points of interest were pointed out to us. All our stops along the way were pre-arranged, this included two coffee breaks and the noon meals. Our suppers were usually at our overnight stopping place.

Our first stop for the night was Coeur D'Alene, Idaho where we were hosted to a "Get Acquainted Dinner." The next day we passed through the "Apple State" of Washington and into Oregon, where we spent the night in Bend. The following day we entered the State of California and passed through the Ponderosa where inactive volcanoes invade the surrounding countryside. After lunch we entered the Sacramento Valley, famous for its beautiful and abundant vegetable crops.

We had an agricultural tour of the Sacramento area which included going to a nut factory, and to vineyards, followed by wine tasting. Then on to the "City by the Bay", San Francisco, where we stayed for two nights. We were hosted to an excellent dinner at Fisherman's Wharf. After supper we went for a ride on one of San Francisco's Cable Cars, which had its beginning in San Francisco in 1873. We also went to the Fremont Hotel which withstood the earthquake of 1906. On our return to our hotel, the cab driver took us down the crookedest street in the world. The following day we went across San Francisco's famous Golden Gate Bridge, and on to Muir Woods where you see the Giant Redwoods of California.

Next day we were Los Angeles bound, with a stop over at Salvang, known by another name "Little Denmark." Once in Los Angeles we were taken on a city tour, to Beverly Hills, Hollywood and ended up at universal studios, where we spent several hours watching how movies were made. The following two days we toured Knotts Berry Farm Amusement Park and Disneyland.

After all that walking we got on a bus again, this time bound for San Diego. We stopped at San Juan Capistrano Mission, where the swallows return every March. We also spent an interesting afternoon at Sea World.

We drove to the Mexican border and from there took a Mexican bus into Tijuana for a few hours of shopping. The following day we drove across the Mojave Dessert to Las Vegas. (None of us came away from there any richer). The morning we left there, the ground was covered with snow (the first time in five years). When we got to Salt Lake City, we went for a tour of the Mormon Temple, this is the place that the 375 voice choir sings.

One more stop-over before we were homeward bound was at Helena, Montana. Here we had a farewell get-together party. Last day on the road, we picked up our duty free goodies and cleared customs at Coutts.

This way there should be sufficient to share. Teachers will supply drinks, cups, etc. If you have a babe in arms, perhaps a bottle of juice or milk and a couple of diapers would help to keep him/her comfortable during the talk. There will be coffee and squares for the adults. As teachers, we have really grown in our faith by sharing time with your children. Won't you come and share some of your time with us? (Don't forget your questions and suggestions for Sister Virginia).

1979 Year of the Child -- How to get our children involved? Plans are underway for a second "Family sharing breakfast" in the Gibbons Hall on Sunday, February 25 directly after 11 a.m. mass. This time we would ask each family to bring enough foodstuff for their own family and one extra, e.g. pancake mix, sausages, bacon, milk, etc. We also felt the children could support the Year of the Child by becoming more involved in the plans for our new church. It was discussed and perhaps at this breakfast, donations could be collected from each and every participant, so the children could donate something solid with a plaque (saying so) to the new church. There will be further discussion of this at the February 11 talk.

Brownies wish to extend a sincere thank you to all parents and villagers who helped either by driving or donations in their recent fund raising enterprise.

Plans are in the making for a Bon Accord-Gibbons Cross country ski club. An organizational meeting will be held at the home of Ben Toane (north of the elevators in Gibbons) on Sunday, February 11 at 1 p.m. Bring your skis and lunch and come prepared for a fun afternoon. For information, please contact Tom Carleton, 921-2464.

The Bon Accord 4H Food Club will be holding club public speaking on Monday, February 12 at 7 p.m. in the Bon Accord School Library. The club has been involved in many other activities this year including swimming at the Aquatic Centre followed by a stop at Boston Pizza. We wish to extend a warm thank you to all those who participated or helped in any way to make both our wake-a-thon and candy sale a success. Marcia Veran and Kim Boyd shared a prize for collecting the most money from sponsors for the wake-a-thon. All members enjoyed a visit from Santa at Christmas and are back to regular routine. A thank you letter was received from Glenrose Hospital for the Yuletide goodies made by the club. This report was submitted by Tami Kowalski.

With the incidents of break-ins increasing in the village, it is up to us all to keep our eyes open for suspicious actions on the part of people afoot or in vehicles. Let us all help in protecting ourselves and our property by co-operating with the RCMP in every way.

The Bon Accord Ladies Community Club will meet at the home of Pauline Mansfield, 5017 - 49 Avenue on Wednesday, February 14 at 8 p.m. You are cordially invited to attend.

Gibbons Library: Read away the winter doldrums

Getting tired of winter? Why not develop a new interest or use your talents to make something new for your home and family. The library has a good selection of books on a variety of crafts: knitting, sewing, crocheting, leatherwork, candle-making, macrame, origami and many more. The books are colourfully illustrated and directions are given for projects for the novice and expert alike.

Bring your children with you to the library -- youngsters will find a number of new books as well as records which are available for periods of two weeks.

Can't find what you are looking for? Ask the librarian on duty - he or she will be pleased to help you. The Library Board also welcomes your suggestions, so do leave the names of books you would like with the librarian who will advise the book-ordering committee. It's your library - we want to please you.

Do drop in to the library on the corner of 49 Street and 50 Avenue (in the Fire Hall building); hours are Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday afternoons from 1 to 3 p.m.

Namoo News

By Norma Crozier

A number of Namoo people have returned from a Seawind tour going bananas in Jamaica. On this well organized tour they enjoyed perfect warm weather, beautiful beaches and the many activities planned for them. Travellers were Mr. and Mrs. William Danyluk and their two children, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Crozier, Mrs. Isabel Crozier and Mrs. Daisy Craig, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Langlands and Mrs. Marion Flint.

Art and Nancy Yeske with son Art, daughter Debby and her husband Vern Waterhouse, holidayed in California and found the weather there disappointing. They enjoyed touring Los Angeles and Hollywood, and San Diego where they visited Sea World and the famous zoo. They also spent some time at Disneyland.

Calahoo W.I. hold meeting

By Liz McLeod

The 196th meeting of Calahoo Womens' Institute, was held at 8 p.m. in the Gazebo at Calahoo on Tuesday, January 23 with all 16 members present.

We welcomed Kris Dalheim; Roy Schermund; Pete McLeod; Vic Albrecht; Tom Campbell; Carl Bergstreiser; Fred Brown; John Thatcher and Myles Kerr to this, our first meeting in 1979.

After reciting "The Creed," our President, Mrs. F. Wheatley, asked that we think about it and put forth the effort to put into action our better impulses, thereby arriving at decisions rationally. (Indeed it worked, as the meeting flowed along harmoniously).

Since a horticultural judge must be applied for, before February 1, Mary Dalheim was appointed to take care of this chore.

A short discussion ensued regarding the price to pay for the use of the Gazebo for the coming year.

It was decided that inflation being as it is, we'd give the Calahoo Sports Association $150 this time.

All the members with 20 years service will receive 20 year pins, while members that have 25 years of service in Womens' Institute like Mrs. V. Berry and Mrs. J. J. Shenfield, who were members in Spruce Grove before they got the Calahoo club organized, will be so honored.

It was decided to hold the celebration on Sunday, February 25, starting with dinner at 1 p.m. and all former members of Calahoo W.I. will be invited to attend.

Mrs. M. Kerr will be in charge of sending out the invitations.

Mrs. J. Thatcher, Mrs. V.

Albrecht and Mrs. R. Schermund are the committee taking care of the meal while Mrs. G. Berry, Mrs. T. Campbell and Mrs. F. Wheatley will be on the entertainment committee.

Members were reminded that the Constituency Conference will take place in Sangudo this year on Wednesday, April 25.

The St. Albert Hospital Auxiliary have extended an invitation to Calahoo Womens' Institute group, to attend their meeting and tea on Monday, February 12 at 8 p.m., as they also want to get a picture of some Calahoo members with the donated afghan.

We were told that the Hospital Auxiliary are wanting to give a scholarship to a first year nurse which is encouraging.

Mrs. C. Bergstreiser was asked to send a congratulation card to Miss Anita Lischewski of R.R. 1 Calahoo, upon being the lucky recipient of the Alberta Women's Institute bursary. She is attending Fairview College where she is studying animal science.

Now it was time for the delegates report, so Mrs. P. McLeod gave her report from memory on the workshop segment of the conference.

Mrs. K. Dalheim followed with her report on the District 11 Conference that was held in the Grey Nuns Centre on January 17 and 18 in Edmonton.

Mrs. A. C. Kritzing conducted her first conference as District 11 director, and she urged members to learn more of the workings of the Associated Country Women of the World, (A.C.W.W.). She urged branches to subscribe to "The Country Women" and use it at each meeting.

District 11 includes branches from Vermilion, Glendon, Athabasca Constituency, Abee, Athabasca, Wandering River, Mid-Pembina (north of us); Vegreville-Vermilion, East Sturgeon, Wainwright Constituency; and our own Stony Plain-Lac Ste. Anne Constituency which makes a total of 47 branches with 763 members.

The Provincial Health and Home Economics Convenor, Mrs. Winnie Hammerlindl of Drayton Valley, gave the information on the Safety Kit competition, in relation to the Year of the Child, and these kits must be in the Provincial office by April 1.

The main speaker of the day was the first woman chancellor of the University of Alberta, Mrs. Jean Forest. She is also a commissioner on Human Rights and her topic was on Human Rights.

Mrs. A. C. Kritzing was nominated to be District 11's delegate to the Federated Convention in June.

Mary Dalheim won the door prize that was brought by Mrs. P. McLeod.

Adjournment followed and the hostess, Mrs. W. Christen, had the table set and ready for the bounteous lunch, which was enjoyed by all the men and women.

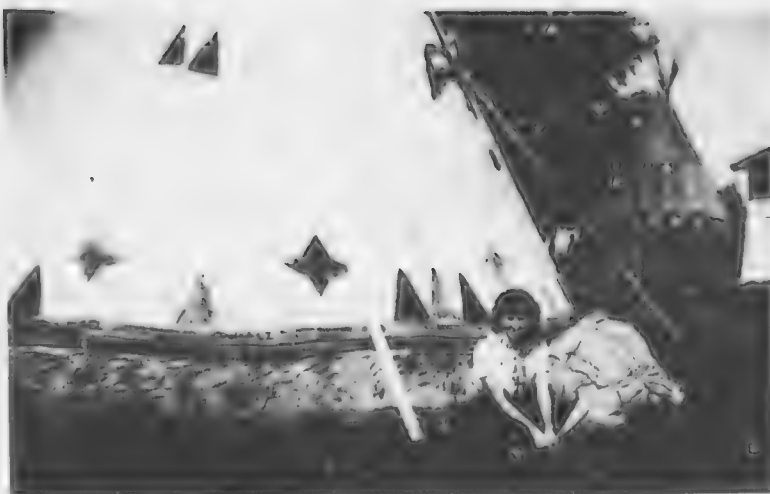

It was a pleasure to sing Happy Birthday to Mrs. C. Lena Bergstreiser after which she blew all the candles out on the decorated cake set before her.

Bundles of mending were taken home by some members as this group are helping the St. Albert Hospital Auxiliary with this task.

The next meeting of Calahoo Womens' Institute, will be held on Tuesday, February 27, in the Gazebo, starting at 8 p.m.

The hostess will be Mrs. F. Brown and the topic will be "Weaving" with Mrs. Betty Albrecht.

Visitors are always welcome.

SITTING IN THE SUNSHINE

Here is your author friend, Margarette Atkinson, when she was a young woman sitting beside a beautiful teepee, where she had just shared a cup of tea inside, beside the warm embers of the fire. The fire burned in the center of the teepee and the smoke rose out through the opening at the top.

Our Indian friends

By Margarette J. Atkinson

It is very sad, but true, our Indians are losing their natural way of life. But do not despair, yours is a proud heritage, you must show the world the many wonders you can teach them. In this teaching we can then look up to you.

I learned as a child how to make chokecherries and other wild fruits into dried, well preserved food, which was used as the cold winter winds blew outside the teepees. I, too, have laid the berries on canvas out in the sun to dry. We'd pound them on a big, flat rock, with another rock and then turned the berries to dry some more.

When bannock is ready to cook, add chopped berries and then propping the handle of the pan of bannock on a stick, bake over the embers of a campfire.

Every winter we wore the beautifully beaded moccasins, which still smell of smoke. I even learned that a deer has enough brains to tan its own hide. After scraping the hide, all you do is spread deer brains, with some water, over the hide. The process then happens naturally, which makes the hide into material for wearing.

Moose hunters who take only the meat of the animal and leave the skin are truly stupid. Those hides are the very ones your beautiful, everlasting jackets are made from.

The herbs and wild plants the Indians have such great knowledge of make the best dyes. The shampoo you can obtain from the Yucca root leaves the hair glossy, even in the cold water of gurgling streams.

I know about the kinikinnik, because I have helped strip the bark from the red willow. This, dried and mixed with tobacco is the best smoking mixture. I also know the white part under that sweet red willow bark was used for aches and pains or a variety of sicknesses. This part of the willow contains acetylsalicylic acid, which is in our aspirin tablets. The Indians saved many white homesteaders, who had come down with pneumonia during the pioneer days.

I also remember the pilgrimages to Lac Ste. Anne. As the old steam locomotive pulled, whistling around the bend from the north I could see the black, shiny braids tied with rawhide, all carefully beaded, flying outwards from the heads of the bucks, young and old. I could also see the colorful silk scarves, which covered the heads of the women's shining tresses, fluttering through the open windows of the passenger train.

Do not grieve my Indian friends, yet I grieve too, at the advance of civilization. Remember, you have much to be proud of.

Recipe limits cholesterol intake

It is time once again to take a hard look at our Canadian lifestyle - diet high in saturated fat and cholesterol, excessive caloric intake, lack of regular exercise, smoking and high blood pressure. These factors make heart disease Canada's most serious health problem.

Begin today by changing your eating habits - limit foods high in cholesterol especially egg yolk, organ meats and shrimp. Emphasize chicken, fin fish, lean cuts of meat, breads and fresh fruits and vegetables.

This recipe for Lemon-Light Chicken is a great beginner:

LEMON-LIGHT CHICKEN

Juice of 2 lemons or 4 tablespoons lemon juice
Juice of 2 limes or 4 tablespoons lime juice
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 tsp. crushed tarragon leaves
¼ tsp. pepper
½ cup Mazola corn oil
½ cup dry white wine
1 (2½ to 3½ lb.) chicken, cut up

Combine lemon juice, lime juice, garlic, tarragon leaves, pepper, corn oil and white wine in large bowl. Place chicken in marinade. Cover and refrigerate for eight hours or overnight. Remove chicken from marinade and arrange in shallow roasting pan. Bake in 425° F oven, basting occasionally with marinade, 55 to 60 minutes or until chicken is tender. Makes 4 servings.

MAKE YOUR OFFER MUST SELL

A real pleasure to show this 2½ year old bi-level, 3 bedrooms, 2 full bathrooms on main floor plus basement with rumpus room, 2 bedrooms and a bath that just needs to be hooked up. For more information, call JOAN 483-0601, Res: 489-7449 or Marge 483-0601, Res: 963-3981.

So advanced, the E-Z-Liner combines scientific repair principles with a precision "multi-pull" concept. And, the results? A vehicle that is repaired "factory new" - above and below the surface!
